Karachi Tragedy, A Live Issue

Why Idea Of Issuing Press Communique Was Dropped

Mr. Bell Postpones Trip To England

("CHRONICLE" EXCLUSIVE)

What is the reason of the sudden change in the programme of the Government in not issuing a Press Communique in regard to the Karachi Firing?

It would be recalled that the firing incident at Karachi, which took place on 15th March last, has created sensation not only in India but even outside India as will be seen from the way Sir Samuel Hoare, Secretary of State for India, was heckled in the House of Commons.

QUESTIONS AT ISSUE

Whether the firing was justified or not or whether some other means less deadly than firing should have been used to disperse the mob, and whether the mob was in such a recalcitrant mood as to justify shooting, whether the firing, if justifiable, was excessive, are the questions on which the public demand an impartial inquiry.

MR. BELL'S INQUIRY

The Home Member Hon. Mr. R. D. Bell, with a view to make a personal inquiry went to Karachi recently in an aeroplane and returned to Bombay to submit his report to the Government prior to his departure to England on leave to-day. The result of Mr. Bell's inquiry was to be communicated to the public on Thursday in a Press Communique by the Government of Bombay but all of a sudden the idea of issuing the Press Communique was dropped. There is no truth in the rumour that the Government of India have vetoed the publication of the Press Communique. It is true that the Government of India are vitally interested in the question, particularly so, as in the Assembly session the feeling of the public was strongly expressed by the members and the Government of India have to cable on the matter to Whitehall in England.

It is understood that the incident of firing at Karachi has raised several vital questions which require a thorough discussion before the result of the enquiry is released to the press for public information. The Government of Bombay and the Government of India discussed this matter over the phone but it was found desirable not to waste time on conversation over the phone or in official correspondence. As a 'via media', therefore, a conference of the Governor of Bombay, the Home Member, and H. R. the Viceroy and his Cabinet, was thought necessary and accordingly H. R. the Governor of Bombay with Mr. R. D. Bell, the Home Member, left Bombay for Delhi last (Friday) night. They will thresh out the points involved in the report of the Home Member in personal discussion.

TRIP POSTPONED.
If it is thought desirable then to issue a Press Communique that will be done. In the meantime, Mr. R. D. Bell, Home Member, who was to have sailed to-day for England, has cancelled his passage and may leave for England next Saturday.

SOCIALIST AGENDA FOR A.I.C.C.

BENARES, April 5.
Resolutions embodying Socialist ideas will, it is understood, be moved at the forthcoming Jubilee meeting of the All-India Congress Committee by its socialist member.

The first resolution, which is rather long, enumerates thirteen fundamental socialist principles on which the future constitution of the Indian States should be based.

The second resolution calls upon the Indian Congress to wreck the forthcoming sham distribution by persistent obstruction in the new legislature.

The third resolution disapproves of the present method of work of the Congress Parliamentary Board in the Assembly.

The fourth resolution refers to danger of war and the fifth expresses socialist views regarding the future of the rule of Indian Princes.—A.P.

ITALY'S FEAR OF GERMANY?

Mussolini Working Out Concrete Plans For Stresa Conference

ROME, April 5.

In view of the opening of the Stresa Conference on Thursday, Signor Mussolini to-day flew in his own plane to his country home at Forlì where it is believed he will work out concrete plans to submit to Sir John Simon and M. Laval.

It is understood that M. Duce wants the three powers to discuss one realistic plan of action.

The main difficulty from the Italian view point is to combine the desire to meet the German viewpoint with regard to their rights concerning the armaments and at the same time to prevent any German incursion upon the independence of Austria.

The Italian fear of German intentions has increased considerably since the German conscription announcement. Signor Mussolini's recent declaration of Italy's armed strength was prompted as much by the fear of Germany as by the fear of the incidents in Abyssinia.—Reuter's Special.

PARIS MARKET SURMISE

(Special Cable.)

PARIS, April 5.
A report has been received from the Paris market that the Netherlands Bank has refused to make further shipments of gold to Paris. The Guilder immediately fell from 10.17 to 10.12 1/2 with three months' discount rising from 27 to 35 cents.

The market considers that if the report is true the guilder is off the gold standard. In London the guilder which opened at 7.22 is now 7.29 offered.

N. Y. Silver Futures

TRADING TO BE RE-ESTABLISHED

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, April 5.

Senator McCarran has introduced a bill to repeal three sections of the Silver Purchase Act concerning nationalization licensing of trading and 50 per cent profits tax.

The market believes the adoption of the Bill would re-establish trading in silver futures in New York.

PROTECT THE CIVILIANS!

LONDON, April 5.

Resuming the discussion on Mr. Reid's amendment in the House of Commons today Capt. Wise said that the depreciation of the rupee might be necessary and the Civil Servants should be protected.

Mr. Morgan Jones thought it fair to give compensation in respect of funds they transferred to Britain but it was undesirable in respect of complete salaries.

Mr. H. V. Raikes suggested that Sir S. Hoare should discuss with the supporters of the amendment the means of safeguarding the exchange value of the rupee for the British officers.

NO UNDERTAKING

Lord Eustace Percy endorsed the suggestion to which Mr. R. A. Butler replied that Sir S. Hoare was ready to comply but not to give an undertaking because he thought it would be very difficult to place such a proposal on the Statute-Book.

Mr. Reid withdrew his amendment and Clause 238 was adopted.

Clause 239 was adopted with the drafting amendment by Sir S. Hoare.—Reuter.

LORDS QUASH CONVICTION

Adopt Uncommon Procedure And Acquit Woolmington

(Special Cable.)

LONDON, April 5.

Adopting an uncommon legal procedure. The Lords to-day quashed the conviction of Woolmington.

Woolmington's defence had been that the gun discharged accidentally. Requested by Lord Atakin, Counsel for the Crown to-day gave a practical demonstration of how the accused's wife was possibly shot.

The Lord Chancellor from the Woolsack put the question as to whether the order appealed from should be reversed and then declared "contents" (corresponding to "aye" in Commons) had it. He next ascertained that "contents" favoured the quashing of the conviction.

The proceedings concluded. Lord Hewart moving the adjournment of the House.

DR. ANSARI'S RESIGNATION

Purely For Reasons Of Health, Says Bhulabhai

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

NEW DELHI, April 5.

I have ascertained that the resignation of Dr. Ansari from the Congress Parliamentary Board is for reasons of health and for no other cause. Mr. Bhulabhai Desai desires to contradict the suggestion appearing in certain quarters that the resignation was due to certain differences between Dr. Ansari and Mr. Desai.

Mr. Desai says, there is absolutely no foundation for that suggestion. On the other hand the relations between Mr. Desai and Dr. Ansari have been most cordial and there has been no occasion on which there is any difference of opinion between them.

Dr. Ansari attended the meeting of the Congress Parliamentary Board a few days ago when a resolution of condolence on the death of Mr. Sherwan was passed. Dr. Ansari, I am assured, would have continued to be the President of the Congress Parliamentary Board but for his health.

New Constitution & Congress Attitude

Socialist Demand For Clearing The Issue

LIGHT ON DELHI TALKS

B. P. C. C. Postpones Consideration

"There is a move among prominent Congressmen to form a party to enter the newly constituted Assembly and Councils and even accept offices under the new Constitution. Many of them are members of the Assembly to-day and others are well known Congressmen, who either did not stand for election or stood for election and failed during the last elections.

MOVE TO ACCEPT OFFICES

Recently a meeting was held in Delhi when all the Congress M.L.A.'s were present and the question of acceptance of office was considered. The resolution deciding upon the acceptance of office by Congressmen was lost by a majority of only two votes.

This statement was made by Mr. Yusuf Meherally, the Congress Socialist, at a meeting of the Bombay Provincial Congress Committee on Friday when he moved a resolution regarding the attitude of the Congress when the new Constitution became an accomplished fact.

CONSIDERATION POSTPONED

After an hour's discussion the House decided to accept Mr. S. K. Patil's amendment, postponing the consideration of Mr. Meherally's resolution.

The House passed a resolution calling upon the citizens of Bombay not to participate in the Silver Jubilee celebrations. IN VIEW OF C. D. WITHDRAWAL.

Mr. Jamnadas Dwarkadas opposing the Silver Jubilee resolution said that no purpose would be served by passing a resolution of the above nature in view of the change in the policy of the Congress and in view of the withdrawal of the Civil Disobedience movement.

PROCEEDINGS IN DETAIL
At the adjourned general body meeting of the Bombay Provincial Congress Committee on Friday, a resolution regarding the Silver Jubilee of Their Majesties Rule was discussed. Mr. K. F. Nariman was in the chair.

Mr. K. D. Merchant, who obtained the priority for his resolution moved:—

"In furtherance of the resolution of the Working Committee of the Indian National Congress, the B. P. C. C. calls upon the people of Bombay not to participate in or contribute to the Silver Jubilee celebrations and funds in any shape or form."

The mover in the course of his speech said that the resolution spoke for itself and there was no need of further expounding it. The Working Committee had passed a resolution about the Silver Jubilee some time ago and it was for the B. P. C. C. to call upon the people of Bombay not to participate in the celebrations.

Mr. M. R. Masani seconded the resolution. Mr. S. K. Patil, who thought that there was no need of passing the above resolution in view of the Working Committee's resolution on the question, was not in any way against the spirit of the resolution.

JAMNADAS'S OPPOSITION
Mr. Jamnadas Dwarkadas opposing the resolution said that he was not in favour of the B. P. C. C. passing a resolution of the above nature. The Congress had called off the Civil Disobedience movement. It had decided on entering the Legislature and had sent its men to the Assembly, who had sworn allegiance to the sovereign. It might be formal but Congress members who are believers in Truth and Non-violence knew that there was absolutely no difference between something formal and actually done. The speaker did not, of course, agree with the forms of celebrating the Jubilee in certain parts of the country.

At this stage a point of Order was raised by Mr. Furushah Tricundas who wanted to know if a member of the B. P. C. C. could criticise the action of the Working Committee.

Mr. Jamnadas: I have a right of expressing my opinion which might be different from that of the Working Committee.

A MEMBER'S RIGHT.
The President ruled that since the topic had been re-opened in the B. P. C. C. the member had a right to say what he thought about the question.

Continuing Mr. Jamnadas said that, passing a resolution of the above nature would not serve any useful purpose. There was a good deal of sentiment involved in the celebration of the Jubilee and opposing it at this stage would be futile and not be in the fitness of things. The speaker felt that it would not be possible to put into action what was decided. Since there has been a considerable change in the policy of the Congress, it would be wise not to indulge in passing resolutions of the above kind.

Mr. Mahadewar felt that unless those who moved the resolution decided to put into action what they decided, there was no use of passing the above resolution. One ought to be content with the resolution of the Working Committee.

STILL SLAVES.
Mr. Ali Bahadur Khan replying to Mr. Jamnadas said that the (Continued on Page 17)

Continent Inundates London 'Change

PARIS OPINES, HOLLAND VIRTUALLY OFF GOLD

(Special Cable.)

LONDON, April 5.

The continent has inundated the London Foreign Exchange market with the offers to sell Dutch Guilders, Swiss Francs, and heavy buying orders for sterling, the latter improving sharply all round. The Paris rumour despite the subsequent denial caused an avalanche of selling.

Will They Go Off Gold?

Paris opined that Holland is virtually off the gold standard owing to the guilder being far below the gold export point and interprets the action of British control in not intervening to prevent the rise of sterling as indicating the belief of the British authorities that Holland and Switzerland would abandon gold shortly.

Unabated Speculation

Amsterdam expects the Netherlands Bank rate will be increased further by one per cent to-night in order to check the unabated speculative attack.

It is estimated that the Netherlands Bank to-day lost 40,000,000 florins worth of gold to France and the United States.

ALARM UNJUSTIFIED

(SPECIAL CABLE.)

AMSTERDAM, April 5.

The alarm raised in Paris is unjustified. There has been no refusal to ship gold to Paris but the Netherlands Bank following its customary rule only delivered gold up to noon and it will restart as usual to-morrow morning.

Well-informed circles consider the fears of depreciation of Guilder as entirely without foundation.

DARING BOMBAY THEFT

A daring case of house breaking and theft was reported to the Gamdevi Police Station on Friday night in which Jewellery and other articles valued at over Rs. 1,000 was stolen.

It appears that Mr. Mahanli Khursedi residing in "Rahimtoola West View" Chaupatty, went out for a drive with his family on Friday evening.

On their return at about 7-45 p.m. it was discovered that several almirahs and cup-boards had been broken open and several valuable articles stolen.

Inspector Wanjara, Deputy Inspector Hewson and Sergt. Carons who came to the house as soon as a complaint was made to the police, carried out inquiries.

It is suspected that the servants in the employ of Mr. Khursedi are responsible for this crime as one of them is reported to have absconded.

an auction sale at which no bid was made of nine pedigree cows seized for the unpaid tithe of £59. Mud, potatoes and carrots were thrown on the burning effigies, three donkeys bearing the scurrilous placards headed the procession in which 100 tithe-payers participated. The crowd sang "Rule Britannia."

PUNJAB LEADS
IN ATHLETICS14 Selected For Indian
Team In Western Asiatic
Games

LAHORE, April 3.
"I am glad to see from the annual report that the Punjab Olympic Association has had another successful year," says Sir Herbert Emerson, Governor of the Punjab, in a foreword published with the report.

The report shows that four all-India and one Punjab records were broken at the Punjab Athletic Championships and the Punjab athletic team sent for the All-India Athletic Championships
at New Delhi, not only won the Sir Dorabji J. Tata inter-provincial trophy, but secured more points than those of all the other teams put together.

The Punjab Basket Ball team won the All-India Basket Ball Championship held under the auspices of the Indian Olympic Association, at New Delhi in February, 1934, and the Punjab
wrestlers sent for the All-India wrestling competition won four weights out of the six weights included in the All-India wrestling programme.

14 PUNJABEES SELECTED.
As a result of their performances in the All-India Athletic Championships, held at New Delhi
in February, 14 of the Punjab athletes were selected as members of the Indian team, which participated in the first Western Asiatic Games.

The Punjab had the honour of supplying two out of three athletes sent from India for the British Empire Games, while two other Punjab athletes, Messrs.
G. P. Bhalla and Jehangir Khan joined the team in England, making the Punjab share four out of five, the full strength of the team. The Punjab had also the honour of supplying one of the two wrestlers of the Indian team
for the Empire Games.

The Punjab team in the All-India Swimming Championships distinguished itself by gaining three first places, four second places and two third places.

WOMEN ATHLETES' SUCCESS.

A very important feature of the year's work was the starting of Women's Athletic Championships.
Though the number of entries
was not very large, the standard attained in the competition was quite satisfactory. In the Indian Olympic Trials in the women's events the Punjab athletes distinguished themselves by gaining one first place, three second places and one-third place.—A. P.

BOXING MANAGER'S
LOST LICENCE

Matt Wells To Appeal To House Of Lords

While the Court of Appeal disallowed the appeal of Mr. Matt Wells, the boxing referee, from the judgment of Mr. Justice Avory, in his action against the British Boxing Board of Control, leave to appeal to the House of Lords was granted.
In his action, Mr. Wells claimed declaration that the withdrawal of his licence after the Albert Hall fight between McCordindale and Neusel in March, 1933, was invalid, and he asked for an injunction restraining the board
from acting on their decision.

The board justified their action on the ground of Mr. Wells' incompetence as a referee on that occasion.

Mr. Justice Avory decided there was no case to go to the jury, and accordingly gave judgment for the board, holding that they did not act beyond their powers.

Lord Justices Greer and Man-gum agreed with the decision of Mr. Justice Avory, but Lord Justice Slesser gave a dissenting judgment.

WHEN SCIENTISTS AGREE
you can be sure that their findings are TRUE

Says Dr. AUFRICHT, Chemist to the Berlin Chamber of Commerce and to the German Public Laboratory for experimental Chemistry, Microscopy and Bacteriology.

"I have tested Godrej's Vegetable Toilet Soaps and in my opinion they are such as would kill the streptococcus and staphylococcus germs, the germs of typhoid fever and other resistant diseases. They are excellent disinfectants."

Says Major DICKINSON, Government Chemical Analyst:—"GODREJ'S SOAPS are perfect in all respects."

Says HERR CARL LUSURTZE, a German Skin Doctor:—"I have devoted years of study to the functions of human skin and I find that soaps made of animal fats, however excellent, are a source of great danger as they clog the pores and retard the free flow of perspiration from the skin."

I have tested by personal use and chemical experiment your Vegetable Toilet Soaps and I unhesitatingly give them the place of honour as health and beauty soaps."

Says Dr. M. A. ANSARI, M.D., M.S., Ex-President of the Indian National Congress:—"I have great pleasure in testifying to the most excellent quali- ties of Godrej's soaps. I have used them now for the last ten years and have found them better than the best soaps manu- factured in Europe or for that matter any other country. I recom- mend them to the Indian public both from the point of view of their excellence and their being made in India."

"Times Of India" Defeat
G. I. P. Railway

Friday's match attracted a good gate, the G. I. P. Railway supporters mustering strong.

From the bully the "Times of India" were on the defensive and Pinto drew first blood with a back hand shot. E. D'Souza initiated a forward movement which gave Fairman a splendid opportunity to equalise but he missed
the target narrowly. The pres-men were attacking when the half-time whistle blew.

The exchanges became very lively on resumption, the "Times" forwards missing two glorious chances of scoring. The railway men survived an intense bombardment for fully ten minutes
but luck favoured them. A determined effort however, towards the close enabled Pinto to equal-ise. Extra time had to be played but there was no change in the score during the first five minutes.

A sudden raid in the last period saw the "Times" go ahead through E. D'Souza.

RESULT.

"SEQUOIA," DRAMA OF THE WILDS

At The Regal

The most startling innovation in screen entertainment since motion pictures were first discovered is offered in "Sequoia," M-G-M's nature drama featuring Jean Parker, and now showing at the Regal Theatre. A human romance is blended into a story of American animal life containing such unheard of scenes as a mountain lion and deer, nature's most deadly enemies, playing together like lambs; hundreds of deer on migrations into high Sierra regions never before photographed by a camera; mountain lion and wolves stalking animal prey; and intimate records of the daily life of such wild animals as coyotes, bears, raccoons, eagles, rattle snakes, baby fawns, and small lion cubs. Photography that brings gasps to audiences was obtained by months of "stalking" behind trees and in brush shelters. Pack trains of mules carried equipment to the world's highest lakes at an elevation of 11,000 feet, where scenic beauties never seen except by forest ranger patrols, were captured by the camera. The pagan beauty of Jean Parker has never been brought out to better advantage than during her scenes as a "girl of the forest" who finds adventure and love while helping her naturalist father. Her portrayal sparkles with charm and evident interest in the many animals of the picture. Russell Hardie is virile and convincing as the young forest ranger who finds love with the "forest girl" amid the grandeur of Sequoia National Park, America's wonderland of giant trees. Supporting roles are capably filled by Paul Hurst, as Bergman, killer of deer, Samuel Hinds as the naturalist, Edward

INDIA'S FLORA AND FAUNA

Bombay Natural History Society's Activities

The annual general meeting of the Bombay Natural History Society was held at the Prince of Wales Museum on Wednesday last with Rev. Fr. J. F. Calus, in the Chair.

The Honorary Secretary then presented the Society's Annual Report for the year 1934. The report gives a survey of the activities of the Society.

The various papers on Indian mammals which have appeared in the Society's Journal are a preliminary to the long overdue revision of Blanford's Fauna of British India. This was sanctioned by the Secretary of State many years ago. It is hoped that the British Museum will make a special effort to expedite publication.

Dr. Hora contributed an interesting paper on the "Wanderings of the Bombay Duck." Little is known of the factors which govern the mass movement of these fishes. They appear in abundance on the Bombay Coast during the monsoon, but are comparatively scarce in other seasons.

Twenty-four of our more conspicuous and ornamental trees have now been illustrated in colour and described. Six more will complete this series, which will then be published in book form.

The Society is publishing the third part of "Wild Animals of the Indian Empire" with a view to creating wider interest in the preservation of wild life. Recommendations were made for the better protection of wild animals both inside and outside forest areas, but the whole problem still remains far from being settled.

There is the need of permanent sanctuaries for giving shelter to

"HAPPINESS AHEAD"

At The Pathe

A new screen team composed of Dick Powell and Josephine Hutchinson, the famous stage star, will captivate audiences at Pathe to-day.

Dick tops the show with his inimitable voice, his magnetic personality, his "million dollar smile" and his real acting talent, but he does it with the aid of the brilliant new film star, Miss Hutchinson, who plays opposite him.

"Happiness Ahead" is Miss Hutchinson's bow in talking pictures, although years ago, as a child, she played a role with Mary Pickford in "The Little Princess." This brilliant and beautiful actress is famous for the characters she created in the Eva Le Gallienne Civic Repertory Company. She was the sensation of last season as "Alice" in "Alice in Wonderland."

In "Happiness Ahead" she shows talent that should make her as great a screen star, as she has been of the stage.

Dick Powell, never has appeared to better advantage than in this picture. Dick, who came to the front, in musical spectacles such as "Footlight Parade," "Dames," "Twenty Million Sweethearts," and other musicals, now proves that he not only has an exceptionally pleasing singing voice, but that he is a thoroughly capable actor.

"Happiness Ahead," at the Pathe—Dick Powell and Josephine Hutchinson.

"Happiness Ahead" gives him more opportunity for straight acting than any of his other pictures. While his singing will captivate everyone who hears him, so also will they be fascinated by his talented work in the romantic role.

Powell's catchy songs include "For God's My Heart" and "Beauty Must Be Love." He sings a third in a comedy duet with Frank McHugh entitled "Merrily Singing Window Panes." Dorothy Dare, another newcomer to the screen, although famous as a comedienne and musical comedy star on Broadway, does fine work in a comedy role and signs a new popular Air, "An On Account of a Strawberry Sundae."

The entire cast is a talented one and included such other notable players as John Halliday,

Eastern Arts' super romantic thriller "Yasmin" or "Bawafa-Aashik" has been so popular that it is being continued from to-day for the 4th Week.

"INSAF-KI-TOP"

Next Friday, Globe is projecting hilarious comedy "Insaaf-Ki-Top" a picture produced by Baharat Laxmi. It stars well-known comedian Vithaldas Panchole and Miss Sheila and many other noted actors.

such hits as "Hi, Nellie!" "The World Changes" and "Gold Digger of 1933," has turned out a splendid production and one of the finest entertainments of the screen.

"GREAT GABBO"

At The Wellington

All have waited eagerly for a film that would rival if not surpass, Florenz Ziegfeld's super-productions, and it has now come with the "Great Gabbo" James Cruze's all-talking, singing, dancing and dramatic spectacle, featuring Erich von Stroheim, which is the star attraction at the Wellington this week. After a preview of this film, one is very nearly bankrupt of encomium. Apart from the story which is very good every film-fan likes to be treated to spectacle, and much gorgeous touch in dance and music. In the "Great Gabbo," a spectacular dancing and musical ensemble, forms the climax, of many striking stage numbers. Against a kaleidoscopic background, shimmering with movement, the entire chorus ensemble stages a musical and dance medley, which is a smashing conclusion to everything that goes before it.

The old theatrical legend that ventriloquists while away long hours of solitude "conversing" with their stage dummies, is put to new use in this all-dialogue picture. Erich von Stroheim, one of the screen's leading producers, plays the Steiner role of the foreign-born ventriloquist, who, through sheer talent and self-esteem lifts himself from the rank of a mediocre actor on to the highest talent pinnacle of stage fame. But before he is through, he learns that egotism is not happiness. That is the hub of story. With a single sweep James Cruze sends the Arch-priest of egotism and self-sufficiency back into the darkness from which he had emerged. All Stroheim's dramatic genius and talent is focused into this character portrayal. He is a producer first and then an actor, and this may have something to do with the magnificent result. Featuring with Erich von Stroheim,

TROPICAL EXPRESS REVUE TRAVELS FOR SECOND WEEK

At The Capitol

The news that Prof. Doorlay's NON-STOP Revue is to continue for a second week at the "Capitol" is only to be expected in view of the capacity houses which that theatre has been drawing for the last seven days.

Bombay is strongly advised to see the REVUE at play, for this city has never seen anything of the kind before.

A show of 101 acts composed of 45 international artists with 20 beautiful high-kicking damsels... it is entertained a is mode.

The stage is always full, you see before you a never-ending series of brilliant turns, one better than the other... there are Spanish dances and songs, put over as the women of that country alone can do, then there is the Cuban Rhumba, eccentric comedy, incredible feats of Japanese juggling and acrobatic turns which any circus would be proud of presenting. Whilst all the while, the bery of Doorlay girls work hard with effortless ease to provide entertainment of the highest order.

is the lovely, adorable and enchanting Betty Compson, the most popular Hollywood's "Show Girl". She reveals herself as an excellent musical comedy actress, possessing the beauty the ability to dance and sing and the sparkling personality, demanded of a musical comedy star. She is superb in the specialty number "The Web of Love" wherein she is supported ably by Donald Douglas, Otto, though only a dummy, is also a very vital character. Seven song hits and some superb spectacular dances are a feature of this gorgeous magnificent picture.

"The Great Gabbo," to be seen this week at the Wellington.

of the institution are two viz., (1) To release a spiritual force in the world which may avert all future wars, but when war becomes inevitable to miti-lightened public opinion, and (2) To maintain the present status quo bet-

In And Around Bombay

(From Our Staff Correspondents)

Co-ordinated Effort

In a country like ours, or coming nearer home, in a city like Bombay, there can be no limit to the field of social service. The stunts that are the inevitable creation of poverty and illiteracy on the one hand and greed and selfishness on the other, call loudly for brightening up. Any number of organisations can be but too few as regards the relief they can afford. At the same time, every care ought to be taken that effort, however sincere and well-meant, is not wasted not only through over-lapping but also through lack of variety in the measures of relief adopted. For these reasons, the suggestion that the various welfare organisations in the city ought to affiliate themselves to a bigger organisation, is worthy of consideration. The Children's Aid Society, the Bombay Presidency Infant Welfare Society, the Society for the Welfare of Children in Western India, the Bombay Presidency Women's Council (as far as its social service programme is concerned) are all organisations whose sincerity of purpose is beyond question. Will it not be better that a Central committee to guide and advise the activities of these several organisations is formed so that the relief may be suitably distributed among the needy and the deserving? There is neither dearth of social workers nor limit in scope for service. A well-directed drive against social misery, would be certainly effective if a central organisation guides the relief work with a comprehensive survey of the present situation in the province.

Railway Grievances

The hardship and inconvenience caused to the suburban passengers in regard to the seating accommodation, inadequate ventilation, leaky conditions of carriages and jammed up windows and shutters etc., are receiving attention of the railway authorities as will be seen from the proceedings of the G.I.P.
Railway Local Advisory Committee issued recently. The chairman of the Committee declared that the seating accommodation and ventilation, etc., as provided on G.I.P. Railway on suburban service, compared favourably with those provided by the B.E. and C.I.
Railways. In regard to the leaky roofs, he admitted that this was so in case of 24 coaches which were overdue in repairs while for the wet interiors he blamed the passengers for leaving compartments open while getting out at intermediate stations. A staff has been employed at the terminal stations for drying seats and closing windows. In the new rolling stock it is proposed to provide more seating accommodation than hitherto. Since all the carriages are constructed and the designs approved by the Government of India the blame in regard to the grievances of the third class passengers rests not less on them than on the railway authorities.

The National Week commences from to-day, (Saturday). The people of Bombay have so far played an important role in the National and political life of our Country. How will they celebrate the Week this year?

Propagation and spread of Khaddor is a barometer from which we can ascertain peoples' love towards the own countrymen and women. It is, therefore, quite in the fitness of things that the April Week has become the Khadi Week.

The public of Bombay is generous

BOMBAY, SATURDAY, APRIL 6, 1935

NAKED AUTOCRACY

It is not altogether surprising that the Viceroy has recommended to the Legislative Assembly that the Finance Bill be passed in the form in which it was originally introduced in the House. Few had expected that Government, as at present constituted, would so far respect public opinion as to accept all the amendments to the Bill passed by the Assembly, however justifiable those amendments might be. But there were many who felt that Government, would accept at least some of the amendments, if only to display their concern for the welfare of the people in whose interests most of the amendments were designed. But considerations of prestige and revenue have overborne all others and the Viceroy would stick to the Bill precisely as it was introduced in the House. That is scant courtesy to the Legislature and the public which it represents, however inadequately. The Viceroy thereby proclaims to the world that the constitutional irresponsibility of his Government is not nominal but real. Indeed he has shown the reality in its nakedness. Let it be borne in mind in this connection that the amendments were passed by large majorities including other parties besides the Congress. The complete defiance of such majorities is an insufferable affront to the Assembly. And it is inconceivable that this body will stultify itself by accepting the Viceroy's message.

The Viceroy's decision indicates an utter bankruptcy of the Executive in this country to devise a financial system which would be more in accordance with the needs of the country, and the wishes of its chosen representatives. The reason given for this exercise of his extraordinary powers by the executive head of the country's Government is that, owing to the changes made, or the cuts ordained, the Government of the country is impossible. But the changes made by the several amendments adopted by the Assembly, taken collectively, do not amount to such a loss that Government could really be impossible. The reduction of the Salt Duty and of the postal rates, and the raising of the minimum of taxable income, taken together, would mean a decline in revenue of not more than 5 crores. There is, even on the present estimates of the Finance Member, an admitted surplus of about 1.5 crore, if not more. His estimates have, however, been challenged more than once as unduly pessimistic by those members in the Assembly who have some first hand knowledge of the conditions of trade and industry in the country. Even if we do not take into account these prognoses of a slow if steady recovery, there is in this Budget, the gratuitous addition to the salaries, which the restoration of the cut implies; and which, in its aggregate, adds some 4 crores to the expenditure of the Central Government. Had this extra burden been deferred for a more suitable opportunity, we despair of making this Government realise the initial, disproportionate heaviness of the salaries to their public servants. There need be no danger from all these changes made in the Assembly of a deficit budget. Lastly, there was the suggestion, not utterly unreasonable, that the provision of 3 crores for the reduction or avoidance of debt, might be further reduced or suspended, until normal times returned. But the Finance Member would have none of these suggestions; and so the Governor-General is made to say that the administration of the country cannot be carried on because of the changes in the Finance Bill made in the Assembly and that, therefore, he must certify the Bill.

Dr. Ansari's Retirement

Congressmen will much regret to learn that for reasons of health Dr. Ansari has had to resign his Membership of the Congress Parliamentary Board and his seat on the Congress Working Committee. Even over a year ago he had to retire from active politics on grounds of health. It is an open secret that the idea of contesting the Assembly election originated from him and when subsequently Congress was about to make a serious departure from its traditional policy towards the Legislatures and make Parliamentary tactics an integral part of its policy, all eyes turned to him as the fittest person to regulate the tactics, in accordance with the amended policy of the Congress. And indeed it was due to him that many a hitch about Council policy was so quietly and smoothly removed that very few people knew that there was any hitch at all. With his transparent sincerity and sweet reasonableness and with Mahatma Gandhi's full confidence in him he disarmed all opposition to the Parliamentary programme. Ever since his return from Europe he has passed through extremely severe strain during the Assembly election campaign and subsequently as President of the Parliamentary Board and also as member of the Working Committee. This strain has seriously affected his health, and it is but proper that he should have a spell of complete rest and temporary retirement from active politics. We trust, however, it will not be long before he is fully restored to his normal health and to his place in the political life of the country to which few living men have made a more disinterested, glorious and invaluable contribution. His services to the cause of Hindu-Muslim unity, than which no cause is dearer to him, can never be forgotten by a grateful country of which he is one of the most devoted sons.

What Is The Mystery?

More than a week ago Mr. R. D. Bell, the Home Member of Bombay, suddenly waked up to the call of Karachi and flew to that town to make enquiries about the firing, a thing which he should have done much earlier. This related awakening coinciding as it also did with the end of the Council session, was bad enough. What is much worse is the continued silence of the Government of Bombay although they are well aware of the depth and extent of feeling that the firing has stirred among the general public not only of the Presidency but also of the whole country. On Thursday a report appeared in the "Times of India" that, as a result of investigations by Mr. Bell, the Government had come to the conclusion that no public inquiry was necessary and that they had prepared a long and elaborate communique which was to be published that day after being approved by the Government of India. No communique, however, was issued. On Friday another contemporary came out with the following interesting information:—

The Government of India, however, do not appear to have approved the draft of the local Government. Accordingly, the Government of Bombay, it is authoritatively learnt, have suddenly dropped the idea of issuing the said communique for the present.

The whole affair is now wrapped in tantalising, indeed irritating mystery which is deepened by the sudden departure of the Governor and the Home Member for Delhi. We trust the result of this visit will be the publication of Mr. Bell's report but the announcement of an independent and public enquiry into the firing.

Significant Admission?

The interpellations in the Legislative Assembly in regard to the employment in Indian States of European officials of the Political Department are interesting mainly because of what they failed to reveal. Mr. Metcalfe gave figures and sought to show that while, as compared with the figures of 1929, there was a decrease

WILL INDIA BILL BE WITHDRAWN?

Hoare May Ask Viceroy To Obtain Views Of Elected M.L.As.

(From Our Correspondent.)
LONDON, (By Air Mail).
The sudden and unexpected intervention of Lord Hugh Cecil in the India Debate in the House of Commons last week has created a certain amount of uneasiness among the supporters of the Bill. His suggestion to the Government either to withdraw the Bill immediately or to withhold it after the Third Reading is receiving warm support not only from the declared opponents of the Bill but even from some of those who have so far given their loyal support to the Government.

It is recognised that in view of Sir Samuel Hoare's statement in the House of Commons on Wednesday last that the Federation will come into being only when the Princes had acceded, it is very important that the opinion of the Princes on the Bill should be obtained before it is put on the Statute-Book. The Government benches appear to be appreciating the force of the arguments of Lord Hugh Cecil and rumour has it that the India Secretary is likely to revise his policy, if the Government of India advised him, in the light of more recent developments in India, to adopt the course suggested by Lord Hugh Cecil. According to a well-informed source, Sir Samuel Hoare will be prepared to go on with the Bill until the Third Reading when he will ask the Viceroy to obtain the views of the elected members of the Indian Legislative Assembly and the Princes as to whether they would like the Bill to be withdrawn.

Pillars Of Liberalism
Col. Josiah Wedgwood has deeply annoyed friends of Sir Tej Bahadur and Mr. N. M. Joshi by his speech in the House of Commons. During the India Debate, the Colonel had told his parliamentary colleagues that he could visualise the day, when Sir Akbar Hydari could be seen riding an elephant in a majestic "Hawd". Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru riding a Rolls Royce and Mr. N. M. Joshi, in spite of his being "A Servant of India" continuing to support the India Government, by accepting a nominated seat in the Assembly and at the Geneva Conference. Pressure is being brought on Colonel Wedgwood to withdraw the remarks made against Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru and Mr. Joshi, as they are open to interpretation that the author of the All-India Federation and its supporter Mr. Joshi were not actuated with honest motives. But, I am told, to all these friends of Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru and Mr. Joshi, Col. Wedgwood has sent out a spirited rejoinder. He has pointed out that those who are attempting to defend Sir Tej Bahadur definitely lack political sagacity. He has asserted that but for the enthusiastic support of men like Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru, the Rt. Hon. V. S. Srinivasa Mr. Joshi and other pillars of Indian liberalism, the imperialist snare of an all-India Federation would never have occupied the political field. These former supporters of the Federation scheme who are now suggesting that the Government did not play fair with them are only exposing their political bankruptcy.

Die-Hards' Interest
Considerable interest is shown by the die-hard in the delegation that is arriving in London to oppose the Prime Minister's Communal Award on behalf of the Hindu Mahasabha. Although Pundit Malaviya and other members of sent an increase of four in the number of retired officers serving in the States, the number of those still on the active list of the Political Department had fallen by one. What Mr. Metcalfe omitted to tell the House was the comparative figures regarding the key-posts held by European officials in the States. This is, however, not so significant as what followed later. Asked if the Political Department did not encourage the employment of European officers, Mr. Metcalfe said: "I am not aware that any encouragement is needed" (our italics). Unless Mr. Metcalfe chose his words otherwise than deliberately or sub-consciously, the implications of the answer are only too pleased at the States' appointing European officials and that if the States did not, as Mr. Metcalfe would have us believe, do so of their own accord, the Political Department would encourage them to do so.

OUR CORPORATION

It Is Necessary For The Citizens To Know Better Their Rights Against Their Municipality And Enforce Them Whenever Necessary

By
K. F. NARIMAN II.

To my mind, from the rate-payers and citizen's point of view the most important and useful provision of the City Municipal Act is Section 815. Under that Section any citizen has a right to make a complaint against the Municipal Executive for existence of any nuisance that could be mitigated or removed by the exercise of ordinary care by the Municipality. The said section is both enabling and compelling: it enables the citizens to seek relief and compels the Municipal Executive to take steps to grant the necessary relief. It is a pity that either on account of the lethargic indifference of the public or because this provision is not known to many this easy and effective remedy for removal of public nuisance is not sought or applied often. During the course of the last ten years, I do not think that more than three or four proceedings have been taken under the said section. When the citizens are constantly reminded of their duties and obligations under the Municipal Act, it is equally necessary that they should also be informed of their rights and privileges, and they should be particularly acquainted with the provisions that enable them to take action against the Municipal Executive to compel them to take steps to supply civic comforts and amenities to the public. Our schools and colleges provide lectures and studies on foreign histories and Western constitutions. But the future citizens of Bombay are ignorant of the provisions of the Municipal Act that so closely and directly affect the every day life of this city in all its details.

Double Responsibility
Though the City Corporation has been in existence for nearly 48 years and the Congress has also enjoyed a progressive and flourishing existence for many years, still during all this long period, the two offices, the Presidency of the Corporation and that of a Congress Committee, have never been centred, at least in this City, in one individual. A very prominent and leading Congressman like late Deshbhakti Vishambhar Patil has occupied the chair in this civic organisation, but the President of the B. P. C. C. has never been called upon before, also to conduct the deliberations of local self-governing Assembly. Hence there is naturally certain apprehension in the minds of some as regards the outcome of this new experiment. Hence, too the responsibility on the first incumbent who has been called upon to discharge these double duties and responsibilities, is great. He should endeavour and take great care to make this first experiment a great success, so that at the end of the tenure of his office, the efficiency, status, and dignity of both the organisations—civic and political—are not impaired in the least. But on the contrary, as result of this first experiment both have gained strength and utility.

Same Objectives
If the aims and objects of both these institutions are service of the people and the city, though in different spheres, one in civic and the other in political, there is no reason to anticipate any conflict or clash, and hence no reason to apprehend any deadlocks or embarrassments in the future. So far as the constructive programme of both the institutions is concerned their objectives are the same. Though the methods of giving effect to it or rendering service may be different the Corporation is generally inclined towards Swadeshi and has passed a resolution to that effect. If there is one question in which all members are agreed, it is on the question of Prohibition. Again, all are determined to remove the bane of untouchability and have never allowed orthodox pranks to have sway. So, also, all desire a spread of primary and compulsory education and all are equally anxious to give ample medical relief

Frankly Speaking

FUTILITY OF WAR

Speaking at the official luncheon at Prague, Captain Eden made a verbal change in the object of his visit from "exploratory" to the "maintenance of peace." The change and the emphasis on it are welcome. Equally welcome, of course, was his eloquent statement that "the time was past for any nation to suppose that its prosperity could be enhanced by war, no nation to-day could prosper on another's ruin." That was the chief lesson of the Great War and the principle underlying the League of Nations. How true and how worthy of being realistically taken note of not only by Germany but also by France, Italy and even England. The tragedy is that if Germany has torn the Versailles restrictions, if France and Italy have also practically done the same, England, too, has contributed her quota through the White Paper on defence—Some say that the ostensible, if not real, origin of the present trouble is the White Paper. Anyway, England has got the opportunity to undo much of the mischief.

COMMUNISTS IN CHINA

The other day the world was informed all too suddenly by Reuters that Chinese Communists had defeated General Chiang Kai-Shek and his army was in retreat. It has now been followed up with the report that the retreating army "after a fierce six-hour battle near Sihfeng, has defeated the pursuers. Fierce fighting in China is not quite uncommon. What is remarkable is that the Communists should be strong enough even now to give battle to the redoubtable Dictator of China. They lost contact, military, financial and moral, with Russia long ago. And since then they have been confined, isolated, in a small stretch of territory. Yet they are not only alive but kicking. The reason is—and it is freely admitted by their worst enemies themselves—that by their efficient administration in the interests of the general public they have caught the imagination of the people under their control and won their complete loyalty and allegiance.

UNFAIR AND UNJUST.

There are two highly noteworthy points arising out of the answer given by Sir Henry Craik about the use of the Foreigner's Act by the Bombay Government against Indian States' subjects in Bombay. The Act was used or abused to deport many of them because "they were convicted in the civil disobedience movement."

In the first place conviction was punishment enough for the crime of taking part in the movement. In the second place if Government felt justified in inflicting extra and very serious hardships on them was it quite fair not to have voluntarily withdrawn deportation orders on the formal suspension of the civil disobedience movement? Why do they wait for applications?

SWADESHI AND STUDENTS.

The Swadeshi Annual 1935 is a publication issued by the Students' Section of the Lucknow Swadeshi League and contains in its hundred and odd pages as many as thirty articles on the various aspects of Swadeshi by recognised leaders of the movement. Particularly notable among the articles are those entitled "Rediscover unto Ourselves," "The Cult of Khaddar," "Swadeshi and Cottage Industries," "In the Realm of Swadeshi," "The Task Before Us," "Nationalisation of Industries," and "Why I am Charkha Mad," written respectively by Dr. Pankaj Chakravarty, Prof. Abdul Majid Khan, Acharya Kripalani, Mr. Shapurji Saklatvala, Prof. J. C. Kumarappa, Mr. M. H. Kidwai and Sir P. C. Ray. The articles are thoughtful and ought to stimulate interest in Swadeshi, particularly among students, for whom the Annual is primarily intended. The book is attractively got up but, being priced one rupee, may not reach a sufficiently large number of students. Most students, however, will rely on less costly means of propaganda, which, though less academic, may be more effective in promoting Swadeshi.

DESERVED TRIBUTE.

Deserved tributes to the memory of Sir Shapurji Broacha were paid by Lord Brabourne and Mr. K. R. P. Shroff, President of the Stock Brokers' Association, when His Excellency unveiled at the Stock Exchange, the bust of Sir Shapurji, who had played an important role in the history of the Association. Sir Shapurji was one of the principal promoters of the Association and its President for several years. He was also closely associated with several joint stock companies, banks and public utility concerns. But he will perhaps be longer and better remembered for his philanthropy. His donations to public charities are said to have amounted to nearly half a crore and he was, as Mr. Shroff said, "an embodiment of unostentatious charity." His example in this respect deserves to be emulated by businessmen in general.

PRESS VIEWS

Congress Triumph

Mr. K. F. Nariman's election by an overwhelming majority as Mayor of Bombay marks a signal triumph for the Congress. It shows that notwithstanding the vile propaganda in certain quarters carried on at times openly and sometimes by means of suggestions and insinuations, the Congress is every day gaining in popularity and in strength and that people are increasingly realising the truth that Congressmen are the only ones fit to be trusted with powers and responsibility. It is well-known all over the country that Mr. Nariman is a good scholar, an able lawyer, a capable administrator, a born leader and above all, a seasoned patriot who is imbued every inch with the spirit of service to his country and his countrymen. We have no doubt that under his majority the character itself of the administration of the Bombay Corporation will undergo a radical change. Our hearty congratulations to Mr. Nariman—Forward.

Bombay's Mayor

The election of Mr. Nariman as the Mayor of Bombay is yet another vindication of the prestige of the Congress in the city, which has played so conspicuous a part in all the national movements since the awakening of nationalism in India. The citizens of Bombay may well congratulate themselves on well congratulating a Mayor who can aptly be called a wizard in civic affairs, by virtue of his intimate familiarity with Bombay and its one million inhabitants, its aristocratic localities, and its slum areas. Mr. Nariman has got the habit of striking terror into the breasts of those who flourish in clique, coterie and caucus, because he possesses an uncanny ability to expose them. This is why none of the Bombay scandals has escaped his notice. Mental alertness is one of Mr. Nariman's strongest points, a quality which is essentially necessary for a man who has to look after the happiness and comfort of a million souls—"National Call."

Grigg's Economics

For a man of his experience Sir James Grigg said things on the floor of the Assembly enough to condemn an economist anywhere except in India. In his own country he would have gone into permanent political oblivion. He cannot even tolerate the adventitious protection given by our tariff to infant industries in India. In his budget speech he has declared his intention to get things overhauled. Whenever anybody mentions planning, he has the stock bogey of the consumer's interest. When the exchange ratio was raised in this country, we were told that it was in the consumer's interest! What that consumer's interest is heaven only knows when the Indian consumer

HINDU SABHA SESSION POSTPONED AGAIN!

Serious Dissensions Among Members Of Reception Committee.

National characteristics inspiring domestic patriotism too?

The Council of the National Liberal Federation of India is going to meet at Allahabad on April 14. It is rumoured that Sir Chimanlal Setalvad will attend. It is further rumoured that he will move a resolution to the effect that the Council accept the India Bill which is unacceptable.

"So far as the Finance Bill is concerned, the amendments made by the Legislative Assembly would, if accepted, amount to a serious mutilation of the Bill," says His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General. Honourable Members should be grateful that their violence has resulted only in certification of the Bill and not in the promulgation of an Ordinance to combat financial terrorism by fine, imprisonment or detention without trial.

Major Attlee (Lab. Limehouse) agreed that everybody was impressed with the unfortunate position of the Anglo-Indians, but he opposed the amendment because if there was any moral obligation on anybody it was on the British and not on the Indian people. "Quite so. But he evidently forgot that the whole of the India Bill is statutorily intended to discharge consolidated obligations of the British."

"The time was past for any nation to suppose that its prosperity could be enhanced by war," said Captain Eden.

This statement will unanimously be subscribed to by all nations subject, with the same complete unanimity, to each nation being the exception to it.

Believe It Or Not

Bestowing a write-up on Mr. Chimanlal Desai's party to Mr. L. A. S. this Delhi correspondent of the "Times of India" graciously says "The greatest 'bonhomie' prevailed."

Tea, if not truth, can penetrate to certain hearts. Congress M. L. A. please make a note of it.

"The Khyber Pass" says a report, "will be open to visitors from Tuesday, April 2."

Why was it closed and why will it be open now?

Assembly proceedings regarding employment of European officials in Indian States:—

Mr. Satyamurti asked whether the department in giving consent to the employment of retired officials kept in view their age and the fact that they were not entitled to continue in service in British India.

Mr. Metcalfe wanted notice. And notice, as you know, is wanted when one does not know what answer to give.

"Whether the (Chinese) Communists will be able to extend their territory depends, of course, on the strength or weakness of their opponents."—Bori Bunder. How astoundingly original!

To accept a requisition for an emergency meeting to consider a particular subject and then, when the meeting is called, to disallow consideration of the subject itself is one of the rarest achievements in civic history. But, Malik Lakshmidas Malhotra, President of a Punjab Municipality, has done it in connection with the proposal to present a welcome address to Babu Rajendra Prasad.

We think this wonderful feat of presidential efficiency deserves suitable recognition of the obvious nature.

He was about to propose, but before doing so he wished to make sure she was a good housewife, so he asked her: "Can you wash dishes?"

"Yes," she said sweetly. "Can you drive them?"

He didn't propose.

has not the money to buy anything. Just when Indian people have grown very vocal and insistent, the Government of India have imported a man who condemns all economic theories which have helped the rest of the world, including Sir James Grigg's own country—"Daily News."

NEW CONSTITUTION & CONGRESS ATTITUDE

subject under discussion did not at all raise the question of the oath of Allegiance. The necessity for a resolution of the above nature was that the country was not in a position to take part in any jubilation of the above sort.

Mr. Kondave also supported the resolution.

Mr. Mahadewar's amendment that the consideration of the above resolution be postponed was lost and the original resolution was carried. Mr. Jamnadas Dwarkadas voting against.

Mr. Yusuf Meherally then moved the following resolution:—

"WRECK IT."

"Whereas it is the inalienable right of the Indian people to determine their own constitution and whereas only a Constituent Assembly elected by the entire nation and convened when the nation has acquired sufficient strength to achieve its objective of Complete Independence, can frame such a constitution, the B. P. C. Committee is of opinion that the Constitution which is sought to be forced upon this country by the British Parliament should be wrecked."

SHAM CONSTITUTION.

"The Bombay Provincial Congress Committee recommends to the All-India Congress Committee to declare that the policy of the Indian National Congress will be to make the operation of that Constitution impossible by capturing the legislatures set up under it and by refusing to accept ministerial offices followed by persistent opposition to compel the Government to suspend the sham constitution."

LET HIM SUSPEND IT.

In the course of his speech Mr. Meherally said that there were three courses open for the Congress, when the Constitution did become an accomplished fact. (1) Working the Constitution for what it was worth. This would be the attitude of the Liberals. (2) Then there was the second attitude of some people which was for entering the legislatures and accepting ministries and from that position offer resistance. This was the attitude of the Democratic Swaraj Party. (3) Lastly there was the attitude of the rank and file Congressmen, the genuine lot of them, who wanted perpetual and continuous obstruction to the Government in the Working of the Constitution. The Congress should capture the Legislature through its members and give them the necessary mandate as to their work inside the legislature. Congressmen were bound to come out in a majority. Then it was for them not to accept ministry and thus make it impossible for the Government to carry on the administration. The President, who is elected by the Congress majority should rule out of order all bills or resolutions brought forward by nominated members and thus compel the Governor-General to suspend the Constitution. That would show to the world that Indians do not want the Constitution which is forced on them by Britain. Let the Governor-General administer the country through ordinances.

DID THEY DEFEY MANDATE?

Continuing the speaker referred to the attitude of the present Congress members of the Assembly and attitude towards the J.P.C. scheme motion when it came up for discussion. He said that they went against the mandate and voted for Mr. Jinnah's resolution.

Here there were some interruptions by some members who objected to his statements about the Congress M.L.A.s.

TO ACCEPT MINISTERSHIP.

Mr. Meherally asserted that his statements were correct and said that an attempt was being made by Congressmen, well-known leaders and accept ministerships. A few days ago a meeting was held in Delhi, where well-known Congress members of the Assembly were present when the question of acceptances of office was discussed. The resolution about the acceptance of office by Congressmen was lost by a narrow majority of two. The speaker reminded the House of the famous saying of Pt. Motilal Nehru when he spoke about some of the members accepting office in the C. P. Government.

"If necessary the diseased limb should have to be amputated." There was danger ahead and the speaker and others of his party wanted the House to be aware of it. Of course there were men who deliberately entered the Congress with the purpose of weaning it away from its rightful path. Once the Congress deviated from its aim of complete independence and decided upon accepting office, then it would be years before the original position would be regained by the Congress. It was better that the Congress and Congressmen should be forewarned about it.

Mr. M. R. Masani seconded the resolution but reserved his remarks.

FLEA FOR POSTPONEMENT. Mr. S. K. Patil, who felt that there was no necessity of passing the above resolution at this juncture in view of the resolution of the Working Committee on the same subject passed only two months ago, moved an amendment that the consideration of the resolution be postponed 'sine die.' He said that the Socialist resolution was very weakly worded and showed that there was confusion of thought on the part of the mover. He could not see if any fresh situation had arisen calling for a fresh resolution by the Congress as the Working Committee had already expressed its opinion on it and had called upon the country to reject the Constitution as it felt that the Constitution acceptable to India would be one framed by the Constituent Assembly. The speaker was surprised to find that while the Working Committee had decided upon rejection of the Constitution meaning that the legislature should be boycotted, Mr. Meherally talked of entering the new legislatures and capturing them. When capturing came, then acceptance of office was the very next step. Since the Working Committee resolution was any day stronger than the one proposed by Mr. Meherally, the speaker thought that the consideration should be postponed 'sine die.'

PLEA FOR CONFIDENCE.

Mr. D. S. Babrekar supporting the amendment said that it was a well known fact that the New Constitution which was before Parliament was not acceptable to any party worth the name. Members were also aware of the fact that the Congress members entered the Assembly to further the fight of the Congress inside the legislatures. Those in the Assembly were carrying on the instructions of the Congress and the Working Committee. It had not been brought to the notice of the public or the Congress that the Congress M.L.A.s had flouted the mandate of the Congress. It was Congressmen to trust their leaders. Unless there was a certain amount of trust and confidence no work could be done. The speaker felt that situation had arisen to pass a resolution of the above nature. When such a situation did arise there was the Working Committee and the A.I.C.C. which would certainly meet and consider the situation and decide as the situation might demand.

DECIDE IT NOW.

Mr. M. R. Masani said that it all felt that the Constitution should be wrecked and that Congressmen should not accept offices, then they must decide upon it now. There was no use shirking their duty and waiting till the last day. Seeing to the fact that the Congress has decided on entering the legislature, there was every possibility of their deciding on entering the new Assembly and Provincial Council also. There was no need of waiting till such a situation arose. It would be advisable to decide on the question beforehand.

TIME NOT YET!

Mr. Jamnadas Dwarkadas supporting the amendment said that time had not arrived for the Congress to pass a resolution of the above nature. The policy of the Congress could not be decided now for the future in anticipation of a certain situation. The view of the Working Committee on the question had received the support of one and all. Even the Working Committee had stopped at mere "reject" and had not gone on to explain what it meant by rejection. It had left it vague. The attitude of the Congress towards the Federal Assembly and councils could be decided only when the situation arose and not now.

MEHERALLY'S REPLY.

Mr. Meherally replying to the debate said that no Congressmen would take objection to a resolution of the above nature. He said that he was prepared for some verbal changes in his resolution if necessary but he felt that it was very necessary that a resolution of the above nature should be passed. He felt that the attitude that decisions about Congress policy could be arrived at when a situation arose was wrong. No decision was taken in proper time and when the time did come hasty decisions, which was not at all according to the realities of the situation, were taken.

Mr. K. F. Nariman put Mr. Patil's amendment to vote, 30 voted for and 8 against and the House decided to postpone the consideration of Mr. Meherally's resolution 'sine die.'

Mr. Patil moved for the adjournment of the House till the next ordinary general body meeting, which was carried.

Bodies Of Women Refugees Found:

SUICIDE BY POISONING?

(SPECIAL CABLE.)

LONDON, April 4. The discovery in a locked London flat of the bodies of two women refugees from Germany may have some bearing on the kidnapping of Berthold Jacob in Switzerland.

They have been identified as Dr. Dora, the Fabian writer on economics and German Socialist, and Miss Matilda Wurm, also a writer. It is believed that they committed suicide by poisoning. Up to the moment of the tragedy they were trying to secure assistance for Jacob and neither lacked money.

Miss Ellen Wilkinson, who befriended the couple, is of opinion that the tragedy has a deep mystery, as the couple were recently in communication with a German whom the Swiss authorities apprehended in connection with the Jacob affair as a Nazi agent.

Soviet Balloon Reaches 130,000 Feet

MOSCOW, April 5.

A height of 130,000 feet was reached by the automatic stratosphere sounding balloon without passengers.

The Soviet claims this as the world's record. The balloon, which is equipped with an automatic "brain," which is actually a wireless installation to broadcast signals of the progress of the flight, ascended at the rate of 15 miles an hour, the lowest temperature of 75 degrees below zero being at the altitude of 30,000 feet.

APPOINTMENT OF LIFE PEERS

LONDON, April 4.

The House of Lords by 44 votes to 14 passed the second reading of the Bill introduced by Lord Rockley with the special permission of the King, whose prerogative was affected, providing that the appointment of life Peers' number should be limited to five in any one year, and the total sitting at one time not to exceed 50.

Qualifications were specified with a view to providing that those appointed should be persons prominent in the service of the State, and in professions, arts, commerce and industry.

The Labourites opposed the Bill, Lord Snell declaring they preferred the Lords as now constituted to come to an end and then the question of the Second Chamber could be considered on its merits.

Lord Londonderry said Government could not participate in the Bill. He felt the reform of the House of Lords should be dealt in one comprehensive measure.—Reuter.

Affairs Of James Shakespear Come Up Before Official Receiver

(Special Cable)

LONDON, April 4.

It is only fair to state that no evidence was found confirming the suggestion that Mr. Reginald McKenna was connected with the business of James Shakespear, declared the Official Receiver Mr. Phillips at the first meeting of the creditors. In view of the low price of pepper it was decided in 1934 by the Company to purchase 3,000 tons which it was hoped would give control to the pepper market before the next crop, yielding a handsome profit. If the purchases had been stopped at 3,000 tons no more might have been heard of the matter.

By January 31, 1935, 12,000 tons of pepper had been bought at the price of £1,600,000. The firm's profits and losses fluctuated alarmingly. The extraordinary thing was not the company's criminal rashness in entering these enormous interests, but the folly of brokers who gave unlimited credit.

I am aware that rumours were current that certain persons were behind the pepper deal, but one would have thought something more tangible would be expected. I feel there is an element of poetic justice in the tragedy which has overtaken Mincing Lane." James Shakespear's position became so critical that Howson initiated negotiations with the Dutch Indies Government with the object of arranging a scheme controlling the export of pepper from the East, and approached the British Colonial Office with the same object, but was informed there could be no question of the Colonial Office or any colony taking action.

The company of Williams Henry for the last three years was largely bound up in tin and shellac, its profits and losses fluctuated alarmingly during the tin pool scheme.

The total liabilities of James Shakespear were estimated to rank for dividend as £7,55,520, assets £258,842.

The meeting applied to the court for the appointment of Sir William McIntosh as Liquidator.

FRANCO-BELGIAN TRADE DISTURBED

Devaluation Of Belga Causes Complications

PARIS, April 4.

M. Marchandeau, the Minister of Commerce, is going to Brussels to-morrow to discuss the question of Franco-Belgian trade which, the devaluation of the Belga coupled with France's determination to remain on gold have rendered very difficult.

The influx of Belgian goods which are now cheaper than French would cause chaos in the French markets.

Existing treaties will prevent the increase of French tariffs thereon, and there remains only the other possibility of imposing an exchange compensation tax or reducing Belgian quotas, but for political reasons France is most reluctant to take either of these measures.—Reuter.

BALANCED BUDGET FOR MYSORE

BANGALORE, April 4.

Far from expecting "any heavy deficit" the Finance authorities in the State are sanguine that Mysore will produce a balanced budget for 1935-36. The prospects, though not very rosy, have vastly improved to-day and figures so far collected, it is learnt, justify optimism.

Their Highnesses the Maharaja and Maharani of Datta, Her Highness the Maharani of Jagannapur (daughter) and their retinue will be proceeding to Madras, having completed their ten days visit to Mysore 'en route' to Rameshwaram.—A.P.

Bengal Civil Service Memorial To Hoare

Contains No General Observation On India Bill Policy

(Special Cable)

LONDON, April 4.

Replying to Sir Alfred Knox in the Commons Sir Samuel Hoare stated that he considered the memorial sent to him from the members of the Bengal Civil Service. It contained, he said, no general observations on the policy of the India Bill, and apart from a reference to the effects of the terrorist movement on the members' security and the services in Bengal, was entirely confined to presenting a case for specific amendments to those parts of the Bill relative to the services.

He received on March 29 a deputation from the Indian Civil Service, European Government servants and the Indian police associations to consider what action could be taken to meet the wishes of the memorialists, with the result he put down certain amendments to the Bill to supplement the provisions already contained for the protection of the members of the services.

On the continuation of the India Bill debate in the House of Commons (in Committee) clauses 231 and 232 were adopted.

Mr. F. W. Donner (Conservative) moved an amendment to clause 233 providing that the Secretary of State shall recruit for the Irrigation and the Forest Services.

After Sir Samuel Hoare explained the position Mr. Donner expressed satisfaction and wished to withdraw the amendment, but the debate was continued by Mr. Winston Churchill who protested that the House of Commons was taking a step which might jeopardise eventually the service on which one quarter of the food of Indian people depended.

The amendment was finally negatived without a division.

Mr. Morgan Jones (Lab.) proposed an amendment whereby recruitment, under clause 233 could be carried out by the Governor-General. After discussion the amendment was defeated by 193 votes to 30 and the clause was adopted.

Clause 234 was adopted.

Sir Donald Somervell moved an amendment extending sub-section 2 (clause 235) to the "postings."

Lord Wolmer explained that the postings covered transfers, promotions, and orders relating to leave suspension.

Sir Donald replied that Government believed the transfers and promotions were covered, but indicated that a further amendment might be necessary.

Lord Wolmer emphasised the importance which the members of the services attached to the inclusion of suspension leave.

Sir Samuel Hoare agreed that this was one of the points raised by some service associations, and said their representations were covered by clauses 236-37.

Sir Donald Somervell's amendment was adopted and the clause agreed to.

Mr. E. A. Bailey (Con.) proposed a new sub-section to Clause

235, providing that unless the Governor-General or a Governor directed otherwise, the pay of the suspended member of the service should not be reduced until the final orders were passed in his case. He said the members of the service who had been exposed to terrorism feared that unless the question of suspensions was placed in the hands of the Governor-General, the Governor's suspension would be merely another word for dismissal, and quoted the memorial of Bengal Civil Service Association.

Lord Wolmer, supporting, declared that cases occurred of suspensions lasting as long as a year.

Sir Samuel Hoare, after emphasising the desire wherever possible to leave the responsibility with the Ministers, said that he thought the clause 237 and the Governor's special responsibilities covered the position, but to make doubly sure he was prepared to accept the substance of the amendment (cheers).

Sir Samuel suggested that the supporters should withdraw the amendment, and consult him with regard to the wording.

Mr. Bailey then withdrew his amendment.

Clause 236 was adopted.

Lord Wolmer inquired if the Civil Service deputation to Sir Samuel Hoare expressed themselves satisfied with the clause 237. Sir Samuel Hoare replied that the deputation did not criticise the clause but only raised one point about the suspensions which he had already dealt with.

The Clause was adopted.

If Rupee Fell

Mr. David Reid moved an amendment to clause 238, providing that if the rupee fell below 1/6 the members of the service should receive compensation equivalent to the difference in the sterling.

The House was adjourned before the vote was taken on Mr. Reid's amendment.

CONGRESS LEADERS IN LAHORE

Rain Causes Hindrance To Procession

LAHORE, April 5.

Enthusiastic reception was accorded to Babu Rjendra Prasad, Acharya Kripalani and Mrs. Naidu, President-elect of the Punjab Political Conference, when they arrived here this afternoon. A number of Congressites including Lala Dunichand, Chairman of the Reception Committee, Sardar Sardul Singh Caveeshar and Diwan Chamamial greeted them amidst cries of 'Jais' and 'Congress Zindabad!'

UNEXPECTED RAIN. According to programme the leaders were taken in a grand procession headed by captains of volunteers on camel back, followed by volunteers on horses and foot and also a number of lady volunteers carrying national flags. Most untimely shower of rain marred the progress of the procession at start, but the rain holding off, the procession passed the principal streets and bazars which were decorated with arches and bunting.

"Patrika" Not To Apologise

SAPRU QUESTIONS HIGH COURT'S JURISDICTION

Judgment In Contempt Of Court Case Will Be Delivered On Monday

CALCUTTA, April 5. To what extent can the conduct and public activities of High Court Judges be adversely commented upon editorially without exceeding the limits of a fair comment? How far does the plea of bona fide comment in public interest exempt one from liability to proceedings in contempt of court? These issues came up for determination by the Special Bench consisting of the Chief Justice and four other companion Judges to-day when Mr. Tushar Kanti Ghose and Mr. Tarit Kanti Biswas, Editor and Printer and Publisher, respectively of the "Amrita Bazar Patrika" appeared before Their Lordships to show cause why they should not be proceeded against for having committed contempt of court through a leading article entitled "Calcutta High Court" which appeared in their paper on March 23 last.

Sir Tej Bahadur instructed by Messrs. G. C. Chunder & Co., Solicitors, appeared on behalf of the respondents while Mr. A. K. Roy, Advocate-General, assisted by Mr. M. Khundkar, Deputy Legal Remembrancer, appeared in support of the Rule issued by Their Lordships on the petition of Mr. A. L. Collet, Registrar of the original side of the High Court.

SAPRU ARGUES. Showing cause on behalf of the respondents Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru at the outset gave a short account of the circumstances under which the offending article in question was written and said that on March 21, last there was a debate in the Bengal Legislative Council in connection with the Budget demand under head "Administration of Justice." In the course of that debate some members of the Council incidentally made adverse comments about the administration of justice in the Calcutta High Court. On the same night, an article was written on the same topic with reference to the debate that had taken place in the Council Chamber, for publication in the "Amrita Bazar Patrika" the next morning. But it was eventually crowded out and it actually appeared in the issue of March 23, last. Meanwhile on March 22 last at the resumed discussion in the Bengal Legislative Council on the item under head "Administration of Justice" Sir B. L. Mitter, Member-in-Charge of the Department concerned strongly contested and specifically controverted on the floor of the House the views expressed by some members about the High Court Judges. A fair summary of Sir B. L. Mitter's speech appeared in due course in the "Amrita Bazar Patrika" and it must have removed any unfortunate impression that might have been created in the minds of people by speeches delivered by certain non-official members of the Council.

PLEA FOR FAIR READING. Having regard to this brief account of facts and circumstances under which the article in question was written, said Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru, he would urge two points for Their Lordships' consideration. Firstly the article in question was in the nature of a general criticism on the part of general public as understood by the Editor of the paper: it does not criticise or make any reference to the conduct of any person purporting to act as the Judge of this Honourable Court. It would be for Their Lordships to decide on a fair reading of the article as a whole without confining their attention to any particular sentence or a portion of it, whether it amounts to contempt of this Honourable Court. So far as the Advocate himself was concerned, assuming for arguments' sake although not conceding the point that even if the article amounted to contempt, it was at best a technical contempt which did not amount to interference with the administration of justice.

JURISDICTION QUESTIONED. The second point which Sir Tej Bahadur urged was the question of jurisdiction. Elaborating this point he said that having regard to the nature of the article which is alleged to have amounted to contempt, Their Lordships have no jurisdiction to take summary proceedings under contempt as has been done in this case. A proper remedy, assuming that the article in question amounted to contempt, would be to launch proceedings against the Editor of the paper under section 194 Cr. P. C.

Before developing this point Sir Tej Bahadur contended, assuming that this Honourable Court had been maligned, defamed or brought into contempt, there were easier ways open to Their Lordships to vindicate their honour and reputation apart from resorting to legal remedies mentioned by him. In this connection he stated that there had been several occasions when serious comments had been in press about the appointment of Judges in England, but there the Courts concerned had not thought of resorting to legal proceedings to vindicate their position, but left such comments to be met by a Government spokesman on the floor of the House of Commons. Precisely the same thing has happened in this case. Assuming that unjustified allegations had been made against Their Lordships, their dignity had been adequately vindicated in the most authoritative manner by a responsible Government on the floor of the House.

Dealing at length with the question of jurisdiction Sir Tej Bahadur opined that excepting only one recent case in the Allahabad High Court he had failed to trace out any case where summary proceedings had been taken for contempt for attack on the court as a whole independently of any case that might be pending or might have been disposed of by any particular Judge or Judges of the Court. There is no authority, he submitted, at any case tried in English Courts to support summary proceedings for contempt when the comment has been made independently of any case that may be pending or might have been decided by the court concerned.

Continuing Sir Tej Bahadur said that the summary proceedings in contempt for scandalising the judges is a weapon which very sparingly used and be availed of as a last resort.

Coming next to the article in question, Sir Tej said that the offending portion reads thus:

"It is unfortunate and regrettable that at present day, the Chief Justice and Judges find a peculiar delight in hobnobbing with the Executive with the result that the Judiciary is robbed of its independence, which at one time attracted the admiration of the whole country." This sentence, Sir Tej Bahadur claimed, might on a liberal construction mean that the judges were on social terms with the Executive, which from the point of view of the general public, was undesirable. And so far as he could see, the writer was perhaps led to write in this strain with a view to guard the reputation of the High Court.

After giving his best consideration to the article, as a whole, Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru thought that the offending sentence might be regarded as "foolish, baseless and silly," but it did not amount to contempt of Court. It might at best be considered as an emphatic expression of the public feeling on the matter, which existed, rightly or wrongly.

Sir Tej next referred to the affidavit sworn to by Mr. Tushar Kanti Ghose, Editor of the paper, according to which the entire responsibility was taken upon by himself. He however claimed that in publishing this article, he was actuated by the sole desire to see that the reputation and integrity of the High Court enjoyed, did not suffer from the least suspicion.

WILL NOT APOLOGISE. After Sir T. B. Sapru had finished his argument the Chief Justice enquired as to whether the respondents were prepared to tender apologies to the Court. To this Sir Tej Bahadur Sapru replied that he had definite instructions not to do so.

Their Lordships reserved judgment till Monday, next.—United Press.

the deputation hope to succeed in their mission, I am told that a vigilant watch will be kept on their speeches, writings and other utterances by the Churchillian group in order to exploit them in their campaign against the India Bill. But this is likely to lead to a virtual tug-of-war between the supporters of the Government and the Churchillites. It is understood that to counteract the activities of the anti-Communal Award Deputation, wire-pulling is going on for some time now to persuade the Muslim leaders of India to send a deputation in support of the Prime Minister's Award.

Hoare On His "Fate"

Sir Samuel Hoare, speaking at a meeting of his constituents at Chelsea Town Hall on Friday night, in celebration of his completion of 25 years as member for Chelsea and also of his Silver Wedding said that he often wondered what fate ordained that he should live at that particular moment. How pleasant it would be, if they could go back fifty years. "Most of all as Secretary for India I look back," he said, "with regret on the golden age of my predecessors. As a rule they were very distinguished people—usually Peers. Nobody knew their names at the time, they were Secretaries of State. That was a great advantage! Perhaps once a year they would make speeches either in the Lords or Commons, and the only difficulty was to keep a quorum for them. Communications were then very slow between India and this country, and there was no Press in India. The British Administration was a benevolent despotism unquestioned by the people it was administering, and everything went on just as I should have desired it should go on to-day. Instead of that, I have upon my back the biggest Bill that has ever been seen in the British Parliament.

Indian Matinee At Istanbul

The British Appeal Committee of the Istanbul International Congress has arranged an Indian Matinee at the Playhouse theatre on Tuesday April 2, when the audience will have an opportunity to enjoy the brilliant changing scene reflecting the culture and idealism of India. Through the friendly co-operation of the Indian residents in England, the Committee is able to give it an unusual charm, which Britishers could not emulate in the West. The matinee will start with Indian musicians playing soft music on their Eastern instruments. Then Lillah McCarthy will read from Edwin Arnold's poem "Savitri" as the tableaux arranged by Lady Ginn-wala come and go.

She has taken her inspiration from frescoes of the 7th century in Hyderabad. A beautiful head-dress of gold filigree and jewels copied from those frescoes has been lent by the head mistress of Wimbledon High School. The tableaux will be cast entirely by Indian residents in England. This will be followed by Holt's beautiful chamber opera "Savitri," produced and conducted by his friends. Singers from Sadlers Wells will take the chief parts. After that a ballet describing another legend will be presented by Miss Flora Fairbairn and Eileen Anderson, who travelled all over India with Madame Pavlova studying the dances. Miss Urmila Parthy is to take the leading part in the ballet "Swayamwar." I understand that the whole programme

No Colour Bar In Paris.

According to a Paris report the Mosque of Paris is an impressive reminder of the host of France's Moslem citizens. The word citizen is precise, for the colour bar is unknown in France, and the dark-skinned North African colonial is just as much a son of the Republic as is the Parisian. Some years ago, it is stated, M. Poincare taught a sharp lesson on the subject to some American visitors who demanded the exclusion of a man of colour from a restaurant in Paris. Natives of North Africa, Arabia, Algeria, Morocco and Tunisia resident in the Paris region now number about 50,000. The latest public effort to cater for their special needs is the opening of a hospital at Bobigny, in the Seine department. It has cost about £350,000 and has 300 beds. The opening proceedings on Saturday last, March 23, attended by the Ministers of the Interior and of Public Health, were broadcast to the world of Islam.

FORFEITURE OF C. D. FUNDS

Home Member Says Question Of Returning Money Does Not Arise

NEW DELHI, April 5. In the Legislative Assembly to-day Mr. Mohanlal Saxena was told by the Home Member, that the funds of the unlawful Association forfeited to His Majesty during the Civil Disobedience Movement, amounted to Rs. 1,40,431-9-0. No question of returning these funds arises. The immovable property taken possession of, such as buildings of the Association declared unlawful, is not liable to forfeiture, but is returned when the notification declaring the Association, to which the buildings belong, to be unlawful, is cancelled.

As regards the disposal of the movable property, found in the notified places, Sir Henry Craik referred Mr. Saxena to the relevant provisions of the Ordinance IV and Ordinance X of 1932 and the Criminal Law Amendment Act of 1932.—United Press.

HOW FINANCE BILL WILL BE ENACTED

Viceroy Will Certify It And Send It To Elders

NEW DELHI, April 5. With reference to the Viceroy's message to the Assembly regarding the Finance Bill it may be stated that the Assembly will consider to-morrow the Viceroy's recommendations to restore the Bill to its original form. If the Assembly fails to accept the recommendations then the Viceroy is likely to certify that the Bill is necessary in the interests of India and would request the Council of State to pass the Bill as so certified. The Council of State would probably agree to the Viceroy's recommendations and then the Finance Bill will be enacted. It may now be presumed that the Finance Act will be finally passed in the form originally introduced by Sir James Grigg.—A. P.

Thus no Congressman could have the slightest objection to the general civic programme of constructive work, though there may be a good deal of difference as regards the details and the method or manner of carrying them out.

It is only when a departure is made from pure civic and municipal duties and functions in either direction, that a possible clash is likely to occur. Hence it would be better for all Councillors to concentrate on the present common and general welfare programme rather than divert their minds and attention to the possible future conflicts, and there is no doubt that the Congressmen, though few in number, will prove an asset to this civic institution and add to their already creditable record of useful public service.

Wheat And Rice Import Duty Bill Battle

No Callousness To Agricultural Interests

OPPOSITION WITHDRAWS POINT OF ORDER IN ASSEMBLY

(From Our Special Correspondent.)

NEW DELHI, April 5.

It dawned on the Opposition in the Assembly to-day that the Government's purpose in postponing the Wheat and Rice Import Duty Bill was not merely to punish the opposition for having taken so much time over the Finance Bill but that the Government wished to deprive the Opposition of the chance of keeping the Wheat Import Duty at Rs. 2 a maund.

It is now clear that the President would have upheld as in order the amendment for restoring the duty to Rs. 2 and it was certain that the majority in the House would have carried it.

The Government would have found it difficult to disregard that verdict as it would have put them in wrong with the agricultural interests. So the Government allowed the Wheat Act to lapse by the 1st of April with the result that all the amendments to restore the duty to Rs. 2 became out of order.

TECHNICAL FLAW.

The Opposition thus outwitted wanted to give it back to the Government by opposing the suspension of the Standing Orders on the ground that the official draftsman had not discovered the technical flaw in the Bill till yesterday. Sir N. N. Sircar coolly said he did not mind if the Bill was put off till the Simla Session.

OPPOSITION TAUNT.

"That is a threat, what about your regard for the agriculturist?" came the cries from the Opposition.

Pandit Pant intervened saying that whereas the Government was callous to the Agricultural interests, the Opposition would not do so and withdrew the point of order so that the wheat and wheat flour and broken rice clauses were all adopted.

The Bill will be passed to-morrow and it is likely to come into force by Tuesday next after getting through the Council of State.

KURLA CAR FATALITY

Motor Agent Acquitted Of Charge Of Causing Death
Of Pedestrian

(From Our Own Correspondent)
KURLA, April 5.
Judgment was delivered to-day by Mr. R. W. Poles, the Resident Magistrate at Kurla, in the case in which Merwanji Sorabji Karaka, a Parsi motor agent of Dharwar, was charged with causing the death of an unknown person by driving his car on the Bombay-Agra Road, near Ghatkopar on December 17 last, in a rash and negligent manner.
The prosecution alleged that the accused was driving his car at great speed on the wrong side of the road.
The accused denied the charge and said that he was not driving himself, but that his driver was at the wheel at the time of the accident, which was due to the negligence of the pedestrian, who ran across the road.
The Magistrate acquitted the accused on the ground that the evidence was not sufficient to warrant the conviction.
Mr. Jehangir B. Patel, Bar-at-Law, defended the accused.

Mr. H. Shankar Rao, C.I.E., Deputy Controller of Currency, Bombay, has been appointed Controller in place of Mr. J. W. Kelley, proceeding on leave.

ALLEGED ASSAULT ON BAILIFF'S PARTY

11 Milkmen Committed
To Sessions

Holding that there was no doubt the accused persons constituted an unlawful assembly and that force or violence was used by some of them, Rao Bahadur A. K. Kulkarni, First Class City Magistrate of Bandra, committed 11 milkmen of Khar to sessions on charges of rioting and dacoity.
In all 20 persons were charged but nine of them were discharged by the magistrate.

According to the prosecution the owner of certain stables at Mahim filed a suit against three milkmen for arrears of rent and obtained a decree against them in the Small Causes Court, Bombay. The milkmen, however, left Mahim with their milk cattle for the suburbs. The decree was transferred to the Andheri court for execution, and an attachment of the property of the milkmen was ordered.

The court sent its bailiff on August 2 last to attach the property. A servant of the stable owner, accompanied the bailiff, and these two, along with five other persons, went to the stables at Khar where the milkmen had their milk cattle.

As trouble was anticipated a policeman was sent with the party.

Seized Buffaloes

The bailiff took possession of four buffaloes and proceeded with them along the pipe line. When they reached the rifle range, to the east of the B.B. and C.I. Railway, Khar marshalling yard, it is alleged that a gang of about 30 to 35 persons, armed with sticks, rushed towards them. Some members of the bailiff's party fled, but some are stated to have been beaten, and the buffaloes taken back to the stables.

Eighteen witnesses were examined, several of whom were eye-witnesses. After reviewing the evidence, the magistrate, in passing orders held that there was a 'prima facie' case against the accused. There was also ample evidence to justify a charge of dacoity against the members of such unlawful assembly, as there were more than five persons who conjointly committed robbery.

The magistrate then sifted the evidence against each particular man before the court and discharged nine men, committing eleven to the Thana sessions court.

SEVERED HEAD FROM TRUNK

High Court Bench Confirms Conviction Of Men Who Murdered Ex-Constable

Mr. Justice Broomfield and Mr. Justice Divatia at the High Court dismissed the appeals of Umarji Bapu and Prabhat Jibhai, who were sentenced by the Sessions Judge of Broach and Panchmahals to transportation for life for the murder of Haribhai Dhamdas, formerly a police constable in Broach.

The deceased was dismissed from police service in 1934, after which he went to live in Vantarsa village where his wife Manibai was living with her mother. The first accused was on terms of illicit intimacy with Manibai and the second accused was her brother and they both planned to do away with the deceased.

With that object they took him to Simaltha village where they all got drunk with toddy. While returning, both the accused murdered the deceased, severing his head from the trunk.

Some days later the second accused gave some information to the police in consequence of which the deceased's clothes were recovered from a well.

Rightly Convicted

In sentencing both the accused to transportation for life, the Sessions Judge observed that the offence was a serious one and it rested on circumstantial evidence. But he refrained from awarding the capital punishment in view of the fact that it was not clear from the evidence what part each accused had taken in the murder.

In dismissing the appeals, their lordships observed that they were satisfied the evidence justified one in holding that the accused were rightly convicted.

There was evidence of illicit intimacy between the first accused and Manibai and that led to the enmity between him and the deceased. It was also in evidence that the accused had used threats.

The second accused had further made a confession, and the Sessions Judge was justified in his view that there was nothing to doubt the voluntary nature of the confession. The evidence relied on by the Sessions Judge was a sufficient foundation for the conviction. The evidence of the first accused was found to be true and the Sessions Judge was justified in finding the accused guilty.

Their lordships dismissed the appeals.

STUDENTS' STRANGE EXPERIENCE

Finds Man Concealed In His Bed: Handed Over To Police

Found concealed in the bedding of a student when the latter had gone out, Abdul Aziz Abdul Karim was arrested on Thursday night by a neighbour of the student and subsequently handed over to the police.

This remarkable story of an alleged night burglar in a student's room was narrated by the Nagpada Police yesterday before Mr. I. S. Hajji, Additional Court, Mazagaon, when the police applied for a remand in custody of the accused.

The student's name is Schalom Jacob, residing on the first floor of Tar Mohammed Building at 2nd Peer Khan Street. He had taken a special room adjoining his residence for purposes of study.

On Thursday night, he locked the door of his room and went out. His brother returning home, noticed lights in his (student's) room from the road. He went up and found the gallery door latched from inside.

Inquiries from his brother as to who latched the doors of gallery brought both of them to the room when they observed the lights put out. They saw the gallery door left open and also the door of the study room.

By this time, the student's father also came on the scene. The accused was found concealed in the bed, having rolled it up. The student's father walking in, closed the doors and shouted for help.

A neighbour hearing the commotion came to the scene. He found the accused still concealing himself underneath the bed. He arrested him and subsequently handed him over to the police.

A search was instituted in the room and two iron screw drivers were found.

It also turned out that the accused broke into the room by means of one of the iron screw drivers.

The accused was ordered to be remanded into police custody for a period of fourteen days, pending further police inquiries.

ROBBED POOR WIDOW

Dadar Magistrate Sentences Heartless Accused To One Year's R. I.

For depriving a widow, who was living on the footpaths with her 12-year-old son, of her belongings, Narayan Dhonduba was sentenced to one year's hard labour at the Dadar Court, yesterday.

It was stated that the accused, taking advantage of the woman's pitiable condition, went to her twice offering her some work and shelter, if she went with him.

On both occasions she refused but on February 1 when the accused again visited her, she agreed and with all her belongings went with the accused to a vacant hut.

To bring her son to the place, she returned to the pavement leaving her belongings with the accused in the hut. When she returned, she could see neither the accused nor her belongings.

Joggan, her son, recognised the accused seven days later and handed him over to the police with the help of a passers-by.

The accused stated that the woman wanted to be his mistress but when he refused, she framed a false charge against him.

Mr. M. A. F. Coelho, the Magistrate, in convicting the accused, observed that he could not imagine for one moment that the woman would go to the length of making a false charge of theft against the accused because he refused to keep her. The property though was valued at Rs. 9-8-0 only, was much to the poor widow.

The accused had eight previous convictions for theft.

The Magistrate sentenced him as above and ordered him to report his whereabouts to the police for two years after his release.

FOUR MONTHS' R. I. FOR OLD OFFENDER

For the theft of a pair of "dhoties," an old offender was sentenced to four months' rigorous imprisonment by Mr. D. N. D. Khandalawala, Presidency Magistrate, Third Court, Bombay, on Friday.

Laxman Annaji, the accused, was noticed coming out of a building in Vithalwadi, by a constable. The accused was arrested on suspicion as he had a bundle in his possession.

On inquiries it was found that he had entered the building and removed the pair of "dhoties" from a clothes line.

The accused pleaded guilty and admitted three previous convictions. The Magistrate passed orders as stated above.

The Egyptian Mission of Economic Enquiry which is visiting the United Kingdom on the invitation of the British Government, arrived in London on Thursday evening. They were received at Victoria Station on behalf of the Government by Col. Colville, Secretary of the Overseas Trade Department, and representatives of the Foreign Secretary and President of the Board of Trade, and the Minister of Mines.

The Egyptian Minister and his staff were also present together with the members of the British Chamber of Commerce and Federation of British Industries.

FORD FORGES AHEAD

V-8 For 1935 On View: Its Distinctive Features

HOPE OF A "BIG YEAR"

John L. Chidsey, Managing Director, Ford Motor Co. of India, Ltd., in the course of a statement issued to Journalists and Press Representatives who were invited to a pre-view showing of the New Models, predicted that 1935 will be, more than ever, a Ford Year.

"Straws show which way the wind is blowing," quoted Mr. Chidsey, "and the remarkable manner in which Motorists in India, Burma and Ceylon swung over to Fords last year convinces me that 1935 is going to be a big year for us. The last word, when all is said and done, lies with the car, with its performance and what it does in actual service."

"The thousands of satisfied V-8 owners in India, Burma and Ceylon are all providing active and valuable propaganda for the V-8, and with the latest improved models I can see nothing on the market, at anywhere near their price, to touch them."

ATTRACTIVE FEATURES

Entirely New Note In Body Design

Surpassing in beauty and riding comfort even the Ford V-8 of 1934, which Sir Malcolm Campbell described as "The Most Remarkable Car of The Century", the Ford V-8 for 1935 is to-day on display at all main Ford Dealerships throughout the country, the New Fords are much

John L. Chidsey
MANAGING DIRECTOR, Ford
Motor Co. of India, Ltd.

smarter in appearance, with lines that are distinctly modern, plus a new treatment of interiors and appointments which sound an entirely new note in Ford body design. From bumper to bumper the new cars are eight inches longer.

IMPROVEMENTS IN NEW BODIES

The Ford of 1935 will be remembered for many things, not least of which will be its smart sweeping lines and greatly improved appearance generally. Ford Engineers have actually increased the interior body room and the spacious interiors of the New Fords can only be described as a revelation. As much as 5 1/2 in. has been added to the width of seats which means more comfortable accommodation for three persons. Increased body room has been obtained by moving the Engine forward 8 1/2 inches and, by so doing, even more leg room has been ensured for both front and rear seat passengers. Head room is more than adequate for even "six footers."

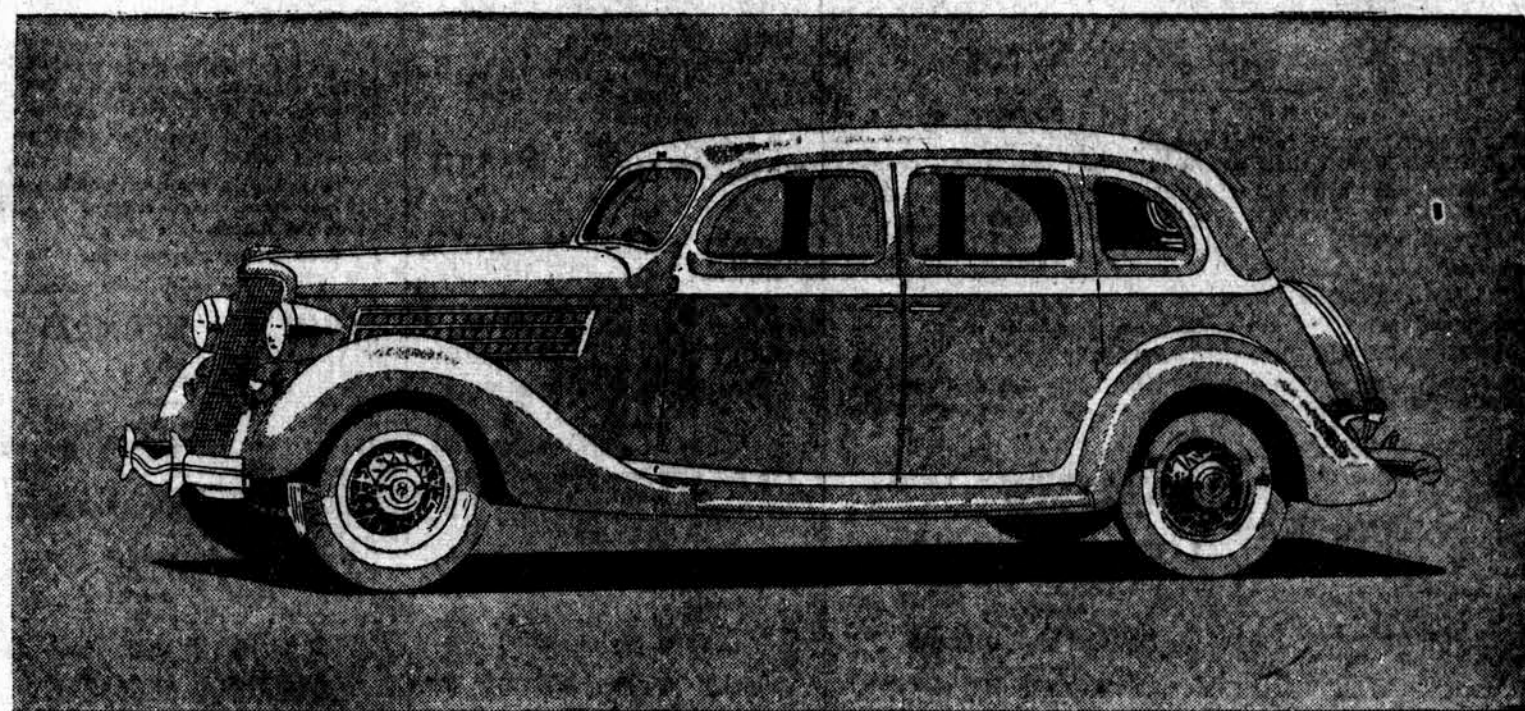

CENTRE POISE: SHOCKS AND JOLTS IMPOSSIBLE.

Centre Poise, it must be pointed out, is the big feature, as well as the main comfort and safety factor, of the 1935 models.

Now introduced for the first time, this Centre Poise Ride can be most easily explained by terming it a ride between the axles. Hitherto, rear seats have been built over the axles of Fords as well as most other cars which meant that road shocks, no matter how well cushioned by large tyres, shock absorbers and good springing, were transmitted to those seated in the rear seats. In the New Fords this is changed. The rear seats are now built well in front of the rear axle which makes it impossible for road shocks or jolts to be transmitted and the result is that rear as well as front seat passengers now ride between the axles.

The U. P. Council has agreed to refer the U. P. Motor Vehicles Bill to a Select Committee by 46 votes to 27 votes, says a Lucknow message.

FORD V-8 FOR 1935

The New Ford V-8 for 1935 is the biggest and roomiest Ford car ever built. It is a strikingly handsome car, with modern lines and new, luxurious appointments.

But, most important of all, it is specially designed to give you smooth, easy riding over all kinds of roads—a front-seat ride for back-seat riders.

COMFORT TO MATCH
MODERN PERFORMANCE OF
V-8 ENGINE

This ease of riding is achieved by the use of three basic principles never before combined in a low-price car.

1. Correct distribution of car weight by moving engine and body forward eight and a half inches.

2. New location of seats by which the rear seat is moved forward, toward the centre of the car away from the rear axle and away from the bumps.

3. New spring suspension which permits the use of longer, more flexible springs and increases the springbase to 123 inches.

The result is Centre-Poise—which not only gives you a new riding comfort but adds to the stability of the car and its ease of handling.

A New Ford V-8 That Brings New Beauty, New Safety, and a New Kind of Riding Comfort Within Reach of Millions of People

You can take curves from seven to eight miles faster with perfect safety.

NEW BRAKES—

NEW CLUTCH—

EASIER STEERING.

There are many new features in the Ford V-8 for 1935 which make the car still easier to drive. New brakes give more power for stopping quickly with far less foot pressure on the pedal. A new type of easy-pressure clutch employs centrifugal force to increase efficiency at higher speeds. New steering mechanism makes the car still easier to handle.

PROVED PERFORMANCE

OF THE V-8 ENGINE.

The New Ford V-8 for 1935 retains the V-8 engine which has demonstrated its dependability and economy in the service of more than a million owners. There are refinements, but no change in basic design. You buy premium performance when you buy this Ford V-8—full 90 horsepower and capable of 85 miles an hour.

We invite you to see this New Ford V-8 at the showrooms of Ford dealers. You will want to ride in it—to drive it yourself. You will find it a new experience in motoring.

OTHER NOTABLE FEATURES OF THE NEW FORD V-8:

Dependable, economical Ford V-8 engine—many refinements including crankcase ventilation—cast alloy steel crankshaft—copper-lead floating connecting rod bearings.

New welded all-steel bodies with modern lines.

New wider rear doors—front doors hinged forward.

New lower, double channel X-type frame—stronger—more rigid—easier to step in and out of car. Rich, modern body colours of striking beauty, including a gun-metal finish on De Luxe cars.

Luxurious new upholstery and interior appointments—new pillowed seats and softer seat cushions. New instrument board of modern design with combination fuel and oil gauge and heat indicator on De Luxe cars.

Clear-Vision Ventilation with cowl ventilator adjustable to any position for a WINDSHIELD THAT OPENS.

Tapered spring leaves for quietness as well as flexibility. Larger tyres with new wider tread for safety and comfort.

Insulation of bodies for quietness and temperature.

INCOME TAX LAW METHODS

Govt. Contemplate Comprehensive Review Of System

NEW DELHI, April 4. An exhaustive review of the Income Tax Law methods of assessing and collecting income tax in India during the current year seems to be under contemplation of the Government of India.

Sir James Grigg in his speech to-day on the amendment of Mr. Mohamed Ahmed Kazmi, urging the exemption of incomes upto Rs. 2,000 from taxation, stated that it is contemplated that in the next cold weather, some experts on income tax law will come to India with whom the present staff in income tax department will be associated, to conduct a comprehensive review of income tax system and see what improvements can be suggested and to recommend to what extent the income tax law should be revised in structure and procedure.—United Press.

RECORD VISITORS AT PRAGUE FAIR

PRAGUE, (By Mail.)

This year's Prague Fair has shown an unexpected upward movement regarding export business. Foreign buyers came in a record number to Prague and the number of visitors from England and the British Empire, Scandinavia, Holland, as well as from overseas countries was quite remarkable. It is interesting that the number of English visitors doubled in comparison with last Autumn Fair. Best results were noted in glassware, China jewelry, toys, fancy goods, leather articles and textiles. The export trade surpassed the turnover attained in previous years.

foundation stone of the Masonic temple in New Delhi. Over 200 members of the fraternity and other prominent persons were present.

Sir Maneckji Dadabhai, President of the Masonic fraternity of Delhi, said that with the building of New Delhi and the transfer of more and more staff, to this place, the need for a temple began to be felt more and more. The fraternity of Delhi was founded in 1925 with Sir Basil Blacket as President until the end of the last year and the total balance to the credit of its fund was Rs. 80,000. The Viceroy then laid the stone.—A. P.

200 WORDS A MINUTE

Trichy Stenographers
Awarded Gold Medal

For the first time on record two candidates have sat together for a shorthand high-speed test of 200 words a minute, and been successful. The winners of this test are Mr. T. N. Krishnan, of the Chief Engineer's Office, S. I. Railway, Trichinopoly, and Mr. S. Nagaswami, B.A. of the Imperial Tobacco Company of India, Trichinopoly. There stenographers have worked and practised together and took their test under the auspices of an independent and influential committee headed by Sir T. Desikachariar and Mr. Eric Geoghegan, Manager of the Imperial Tobacco Company of India, Trichinopoly.

Matter of average difficulty, entirely new to the candidates, was dictated at the speed of 200 words a minute, for five consecutive minutes. For successfully taking down the matter, in shorthand and afterwards transcribing the whole without error, Messrs. Krishnan and Nagaswami were each awarded the gold medal of the Sloan-Duployan Shorthand Society.

A Karachi message says the Airmail from Croydon arrived at 9-35 p.m. on Thursday and left for Singapore at 2-45 a.m. the next morning.

DETENUS' DAY AND BOMBAY'S DUTY

Congress Socialist Appeal To Observe "Flag Day" On Monday

The Public Secretary of the Bombay Congress Socialist Party writes:
To-morrow (Sunday) will be observed all over India as the Detenus' Day. In Bombay we will have a huge public meeting on the Chowpatty Sands at 6-30 p.m. (S. T.).

FLAG DAY.

Over 3300 young men and women of Bengal have thus been deprived of freedom and, in most cases being the main support of their families, hundreds of women and children have been rendered helpless. Naturally there is great distress. To relieve this distress, to however small an extent, the Bombay Congress Socialist Party has decided to observe a "Flag Day" on Monday, the 8th instant. The net proceeds of the sale of National Flags will be utilised for this purpose.

ANSWER CHALLENGE.

On that day the duty of every self-respecting Indian is clear. Bombay must make a handsome contribution and we have no doubt that her people will rise to the occasion and demonstrate their loyalty to the National Flag and their solidarity and sympathy with the detenus.

The people of Bombay must, therefore, gather in their thousands on the Chowpatty Sands to-morrow evening and participate in the national demand for the immediate release of the hundreds of Bengal detenus or to give them a free, open and impartial trial.

Bears Play Havoc In Shares

Heavy Unloading By Weak Bulls

Prices Record Substantial Fall

BOMBAY, April 5.

There was considerable nervousness to-day in the Share Bazar with extensive unloading by weak operators. Bear operators also took full advantage of the nervous feeling and helped the downward trend with increased selling. Professional bull operators were holding aloof and the market was thoroughly demoralised.

It appears that active support given by outside public in an advancing market, minimised chances of profits to professional operators who claim that they are there to multiply their own profits and the public must pay. This is more or less correct as will be seen from the recent working of the market. But they forget that the existence of the market is greatly due to the support of the outside public and the Stock Exchange Authority who often warned against reckless speculation must sound a note of warning to those who sell short on an extensive scale.

In speculative markets there is always a keen fight between bulls and bears and as long as prices move within a reasonable limit, it helps healthy growth of business but when things are overdone, naturally the stability of the market is threatened with disastrous effect to several operators and members.

Drastic decline in Government securities damped bullish activity and small operators who followed professionals were left to bear the burden. Thus the market was becoming technically weak and our readers were advised to minimise their operations.

The present decline may be carried forward in the near future. As long as there exists weak long interest, professional operators will not support the market, except for temporary natural upward reactions. The market will be dull and declining for some time to come as general confidence is impaired but bonafide investors will do well to hold on their purchases as in the long run prices are bound to record material improvement and new high levels will be reached.

The market opened steady to-day with Tata Steel Defd. shares quoted at Rs. 620 and improved to Rs. 630 on scattered buying but at this level heavy selling by bears depressed prices. A feeling of panic prevailed and there was no buyer, weak holders were liquidating and prices collapsed to Rs. 545 when short covering rallied prices to Rs. 562 1/2. Ordinary shares opened at Rs. 138 and went to Rs. 127 1/2 to close at Rs. 128.

Similarly there was heavy fall in other sections also. Tata Powers opened at Rs. 1485 and after declining to Rs. 1435, rallied to Rs. 1445.

NEW YORK COTTON

Bombay, April 5.

On Thursday the New York cotton futures market advanced during the early part of the day on reports of unfavourable weather but reacted later on New Orleans selling but again advanced on covering by shorts. The market was however feverish on the evidence of growing opposition to the processing tax and other features in the Government programme and operators are at present watching Washington very closely.

CHALLENGE TO SCHEME

Messrs. Langley and Co. in their weekly report state:—

Half the battle in life is knowing what one wants. The other half is wanting it enough.

Something of both that singleness of purpose and the driving force to achieve it characterised the early stages of the American New Deal.

Then the legality of the basis of the whole scheme was challenged. From that point the drive lessened and the issue became diffused. The Democratic party no longer gives an outside observer the impression of a team moving under virile leadership towards a great aim but rather a collection of individualists with enthusiasm each for his own scheme and a well marked distaste for the scheme of others even in the same party.

Frenzied legislation never got a nation anywhere.

The high spot among rumours this week has been the revived talk of an export bonus.

The processing tax it was officially hinted would not be abolished but might be doubled. That we discount as nothing more than a gesture.

EXPORT BONUS

And any export bonus, to our mind, is impracticable unless the processing tax is removed. The processing tax already offsets import tariffs to the point where foreign cloth on the domestic market. Then why give the foreigner his cotton cheaper?

To attempt to pay for an export bonus by increasing the import duty seems to any logical intelligence equally impracticable. American tariffs are already monumental. To increase them would inevitably lead to diminishing returns.

Meanwhile, the effect of Government interference with the cotton trade is reflected in the fact that two cotton seas on the New York Exchange were sold for 8,000 each a decline of 7,000 from the previous sale.

It is impossible to give any opinion of value on a cotton outlook, indefinite. But with so large a block of cotton held off the market in the 12 cents loan the basis must remain firm. That being so, we prefer to be long, or near positions in New York rather than to be short of distant.

PRIVATE CABLES.

N. Y. July highest 11.04 plus 07 (10 a.m.), lowest 10.83—14 (10-23 a.m.)

Liverpool July highest 6.09 plus 05 (3-6 p.m.), lowest 6.03—01 (3-45 p.m.)

Messrs. Drennan and Co. have received the following cables:—

Messrs. Orris Bros. & Co., New York:—

Reacted on selling by New Orleans. Rallied on shorts covering and trade buying. There is a tendency to think that the differences between old and new crop will narrow further.

Messrs. El J. Schwabach Co., New York:—

Advanced yesterday weakening technical position. General want of confidence. Domestic mills likely to curtail. Further gradual decline probable.

Messrs. Pirojshaw R. Vakharia and Co. have received to-day the following Cable from their Foreign Friends:—

Liverpool:—There was good trade calling and scarcity of contracts. Closed steady.

Messrs. Chunilal Mehta & Co. have received to-day the following cable information from their Foreign Friends:—

New York:—Opened higher owing to very favourable Liverpool cables. Declined during the forenoon on liberal selling for New Orleans account. Rallied on short covering and trade buying. Expect traders' market for week being. Advise buying on weak spots. Moderate business doing in cloths and yarns.

New York:—Liquidation nears absorbed by trade. Some foreign buying distant.

Messrs. Patel Brothers have received the following cable from their Liverpool Agents:—

11-32 a.m.:—Better tone on trade and scattered buying. Mr.

LIVERPOOL COTTON

Bombay, April 5.

The Liverpool cotton futures market opened at a rise of 2 points with July 5.06. There was some trade calling and Bombay buying of distant positions. Later on there was further trade calling and under scarcity of contracts the market was fairly steady and closed unchanged to a rise of 4 points. Middling American spot cotton prices advanced 4 points at 6.36d. per lb.

INDIAN COTTON

East Indian cotton futures market was steady and closed at a rise of 2 points. At the close May was quoted 5.53, July 5.54 and October 5.53.

EGYPTIAN COTTON

There was fair enquiry for Egyptian cotton and Sakels futures closed at a rise of 5 to 6 points and Uppers gained 4 to 6 points.

TRADE DEMAND

Messrs. M. and B. Stern state:—

The conflicting reports of poor textile situation, and unfavourable weather were responsible for an irregular trend. Secretary Wallace's statement that no change is contemplated in the Processing Tax till the routine revision on August 1st, is disliked by spinners and has brought out protest. On the other hand, before the Easter recess and adjournment of Congress session, the Government policy on A. A. programme, including the new crop loan, is expected to be announced. Mr. Cobb, the chief of the A. A. expects the acreage reduction report, to be ready before Easter. Moreover, the trade demand in Liverpool is now showing signs of improvement owing to the low stocks of about 266,000 bales American held, against 471,000 bales this time last year.

The droughty conditions continue in Texas and Oklahoma and there is likely to be some acreage abandonment in Mississippi resulting from the recent floods. Our opinion remains unchanged.
